Student Learning Outcomes

- Students should have the ability to lead effectively.
- Students should have the ability to manage effectively.
- Students should have the ability to think critically.
- Students should have the ability to identify and define problems.
- Students should have the ability to solve problems.

Bachelor of Business Administration in Business Economics