TTU SCHOOL OF BANKING

The curriculum and faculty have been selected to enable students to grasp the "big picture" of today's financial services industry and give them a head start at a successful banking career. This intermediate level school also provides a great foundation for future study at graduate schools of banking. Instruction is presented in a group-live format. Second-year graduates are eligible for scholarships for the Graduate School of Banking.

YEAR ONE | THE FOUNDATION

Course Level: Basic/Intermediate | Advance preparation is required

Learn to deal with complex banking industry issues using interactive learning methods. Topics range from bank regulations to creating a work-life balance.

YEAR TWO | THE APPLICATION

Course Level: Basic/Intermediate/Advanced
Advanced preparation is required

This class uses Bankdynamics, a computer-based program, to emphasize team decision making and what is necessary to run an efficient financial institution.

MISSION STATEMENT

A school designed to provide future leaders in the financial service industry with the skills, tools, and perspective to help their banks prosper and their careers flourish.
