How the Game is Played:

- Games are played to 7 points or a 25-minute time limit.
- 7 players are needed to start 9 is the maximum amount of players on the field
- The Field -- A rectangular shape with end zones at each end. A regulation field is 70 yards by 40 yards, with end zones 25 yards deep.
- Initiate Play -- Each point begins with both teams lining up on the front of their respective end zone line. The defense throws (“pulls”) the disc to the offense. If a pull is touched in the air, but not caught, it is a turnover. A regulation game has seven players per team.
- Scoring – Each time the offense completes a pass in the defense’s end zone, the offense scores a point. Play is initiated after each score.
- Movement of the Disc – The disc may be advanced in any direction by completing a pass to a teammate. Players may not run with the disc. The person with the disc (“thrower”) has ten seconds to throw the disc. The defender guarding the thrower (“marker”) counts out
- Change of possession – When a pass is not completed (e.g. out of bounds, drop, block, interception), the defense immediately takes possession of the disc and becomes the offense.
- Substitutions – Players not in the game may replace players in the game after a score and during an injury timeout.
- Non-contact – No physical contact is allowed between players. Picks and screens are also prohibited. A foul occurs when contact is made.
- Fouls – When a player initiates contact on another player a foul occurs. When a foul disrupts possession, the play resumes as if the possession was retained. If the player committing the foul disagrees with the foul call, the play is redone.
- Self-Refereeing – Players are responsible for their own foul and line calls. Players resolve their own disputes.
