

Greater West Texas
State Employee Charitable Campaign
2010 Annual Report

You will find, as you look back on your life, that the moments that stand out are the moments when you have done things for others.

– Henry Drummond

About the SECC

The State Employee Charitable Campaign is the only statutorily authorized workplace campaign for state agency and higher education employees throughout Texas. In 2010, the SECC marked its 17th year by raising more than $9.856 million for charitable organizations throughout the state, nation and world.

Texas Tech employees visit with local charities at the SECC Kickoff & Agency Fair on September 2.

2010 Highlights & Accomplishments

- The former Lubbock Area SECC raised $825,717 and West Central Texas SECC raised $131,797 for a combined total of $957,514!
- 4,608 state employees gave to the charity of their choice.
- In July, over 50 people attended the first ever Lubbock area SECC charity tour. They visited the Children's Advocacy Center, Ronald McDonald House, South Plains Food Bank, Early Learning Center, and Boys & Girls Club.
- Our Facebook page launched in September. Visit the page today and become a fan! www.facebook.com/pages/Greater-West-Texas-State-Employee-Charitable-Campaign/103542263037744
- Over 27 speakers from local eligible charities participated in the Speakers' Bureau, attending 37 meetings and 3 agency fairs.

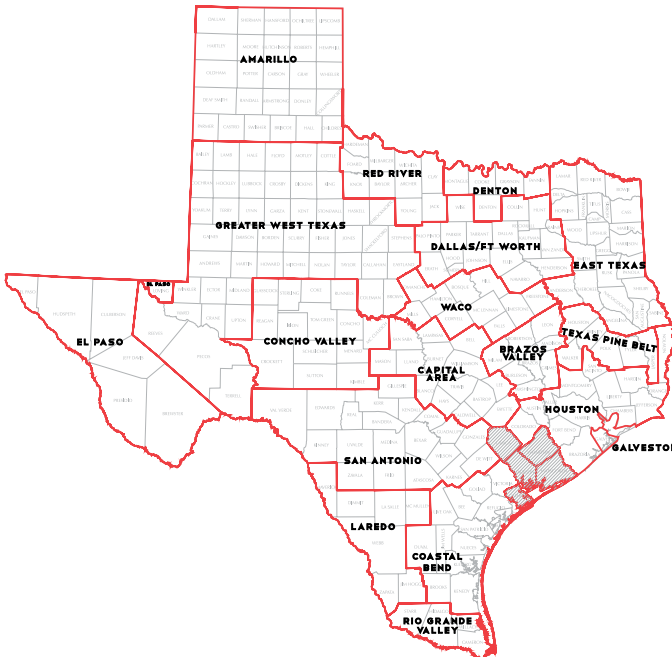

Campaign Merger

In 2010, the Local Employee Committees of the Lubbock and West Central Texas State Employee Charitable Campaigns (SECC) began looking for ways to make the campaign more efficient and cost-effective. It was decided to merge the campaign areas, bringing them under one local campaign manager. The Permian Basin campaign area, inactive since 2006, was also added to the merger to form the Greater West Texas SECC. This new campaign is managed by the Lubbock Area United Way and covers 47 counties.
