Education (Include name and location of colleges/universities attended, dates of attendance, degrees earned & dates of graduations. List on back or attach a brief resume.)

Courses typically taught by TA/GPTIs at Tech include: Introduction to Theatre, Introduction to Cinema, Introduction to Acting, Principles of Acting, Voice, Movement, Makeup, and Oral Interpretation. Please indicate any preferences you have concerning course assignments.

Production Assignments generally include work in one or more of the following areas: box office, recruiting/promotions, scene shop, costume shop, front of house. Please indicate any preferences you have concerning production assignments or special skills that might recommend you to a particular area.

Teaching Experience (Include level [high-school, college, etc], courses, and number of years. List on back or attach a brief resume.)

Awards, honors, or publications. (List on back or attach a brief resume.)

Students holding a teaching assistantship generally teach one or two classes per semester, carry production assignments, and participate in all departmental productions as defined by the departmental production policy. Graduate Teaching Assistants generally carry reduced course loads in order to fulfill the obligations of their assistantships. The Graduate School, however, requires all graduate students to meet its minimum enrollment requirement of 9 credit hours per term (3-6 per summer session.)
