One Office – Four Locations Throughout the TTU System

- TTU System Building – 4 Attorneys, 1 Administrative Staff.
- TTU Administration Building – 2 Attorneys, 1 Administrative Staff.
- TTUHSC Lubbock – 5 Attorneys, 4 Administrative Staff.
- TTUHSC El Paso – 3 Attorneys, 4 Administrative Staff.
Mission/Description

The Office of General Counsel serves as legal counsel for the Texas Tech University System and its component institutions. We are committed to providing advice and services across the entire spectrum of legal issues which affect our institutions, and to do so consistently in a timely, efficient and ethical manner.

ORGANIZATION CHART
What Can the OGC Do For You?

Areas of Practice

Overseen by Vice Chancellor and General Counsel Eric Bentley and the Office of General Counsel Executive Leadership Team of Deputy General Counsel Victor Mellinger, Senior Managing Attorney Joanna Harkey, Managing Attorney Frank Gonzales, and Managing Attorney Vicki Dorris, the OGC provides legal advice and guidance across the TTU System in the following areas:

- Athletic Issues
- Constitutional Law Issue
- Contracting
- Correctional Managed Health Care
- Employee Matters and Grievances
- Ethics and Conflict of Interest
- General Litigation
- Graduate Medical Education
- Healthcare Regulations and Compliance
- Institutional Advancement
- Medical Malpractice Litigation
- Open Meeting Issues
- Outside Counsel
- Patient Care
- Procurement Contracting
- Public Information Act Requests
- Regulations and Compliance
- Title IX
- University Regulations