How Do I Get Started with Blackboard and Teaching Online?

Justin Louder, EdD
Associate Vice Provost of eLearning and Academic Partnerships

August 2019
Components

- eLearning
  - Worldwide eLearning
    - Online programs
    - Faculty support
    - Federal and state regulation compliance
  - TTU K-12
  - Regional Sites
Regional Sites
Components

- Academic Partnerships
  - Continuing Education (Non-credit)
    - Compliance
    - Support for workshops and events
  - Community College Partnerships
    - Community college agreements
    - Academic pathways

- Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI)
Instructional Design

- The Worldwide eLearning Instructional Design (ID) Team is dedicated to supporting quality standards in course production.
- Instructional design support services
  - Assessment suggestions, examples, and resources
  - Promoting student interaction
  - Virtual meetings (i.e., Blackboard Collaborate)
  - Quality standards and evaluations
• Blackboard Support
  ▪ 24/7 student and instructor support
  ▪ Training sessions and videos

• ADA Compliance Assistance
  ▪ Universal design
  ▪ Captioning
  ▪ Accessibility evaluations
• Use only Texas Tech approved software for classes.
  • If contacted by a vendor, check with IT and/or eLearning before using.
• Do not use social media as a host for your classes.