Why Study Languages and Cultures?

Students wanting to develop critical thinking skills within and an ability to understand other people and their points of view can choose a major in languages and cultures at Texas Tech. The program offers fields of specialization for students in one of several areas:

- French
- German
- Russian Language and Area Studies
- Spanish

Students can also earn a certificate to teach in any of the language programs above.

A Wealth of Opportunities Await

Undergraduate Research
The department encourages undergraduate students to work with professors in research laboratories and projects to obtain first-hand information about research in the life sciences. Opportunities are available in many fields, including systematics and evolutionary biology, ecology and environmental biology, cell and molecular biology, and several areas of biotechnology.

To learn more about research opportunities, email Associate Dean Dr. John Zak, john.zak@ttu.edu

Study Abroad
Classical & Modern Languages is home to several magnificent study travel programs. Study abroad can be more enriching than many people realize—a once-in-a-lifetime, thoroughly enjoyable and fulfilling adventure. All of the programs offer academic credit in the concerned language, and each has unique benefits and requirements.

To see where our study abroad programs can take you, visit the website here: https://ttu-sa.terradotta.com/

Graduate Education
Master of Arts programs are available through the Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures in one of several areas:

- Applied Linguistics, Classics, German
- Romance Languages: French, Spanish

Students wanting to teach English overseas may complete a certificate program in Teaching English in International Contexts

Professional Career
The University Career Center helps both current and alumni Texas Tech students with career assessments, resume building, and employer career fair information. The Career Center is here to help you match your interests and college major to a career that is right for you. To see more, visit the website: http://www.depts.ttu.edu/careercenter/students.php

Scholarship
Arts & Sciences awarded $266,236 in scholarships to 139 students so far this year, with more to come. Full-time students may apply for scholarships in the College of Arts & Sciences. For more information, visit the scholarship website: www.scholarships.ttu.edu

Student Organizations
The College of Arts & Sciences has a number of student organizations that cater to any number of interests for students. These organizations help students get involved on and off campus as well as meet with faculty and other students outside the classroom. http://www.depts.ttu.edu/artsandsciences/students/

Texas Common Course Number System (TCCNS)

The Texas Common Course Numbering System (TCCNS) aids students in the transfer of general academic courses between Texas public colleges and universities throughout the state. Course recommendations in this transfer guide are expressed in TCCNS designations.

Applying Transfer Hours to a Four-year Degree

- The Transfer Evaluation Office in the Office of the Registrar at Texas Tech determines which courses taken at another institution may be accepted for credit.

- A maximum of 66 semester credit hours from two-year institutions may be applied toward the baccalaureate degree at four-year institutions. Although, all credit hours presented on the sending institution's transcripts will be evaluated and equivalent college level courses posted to the student's academic record.

- The academic associate dean of the Texas Tech college in which a student enrolls has authority for determining which courses will be applied toward the specific degree program chosen.

- Students must earn a grade of C or better for all courses fulfilling requirements in majors, minors, or specialization's.

For more information on transfer course equivalencies, access the Texas Tech Transfer Equivalency Guidebooks: https://www.depts.ttu.edu/registrar/private/transfer/

Admission Review

If you do not meet assured admission requirements but have at least a 2.00 cumulative GPA, an admissions committee will evaluate your potential based on other criteria:

- Academics — Types of courses taken and pattern of progress, as well as coursework taken leading toward a major
- Student-submitted essay — Explanation of the decision to transfer to Texas Tech, reasons for past academic performance and plans to ensure future academic success
- Extracurricular activities/employment information — Leadership and work experience, special talents or awards, or any other information relevant to the admission decision
