Why Study Philosophy at Texas Tech?

The study of philosophy has long been a central part of a sound liberal arts education. It provides students a deeper understanding of the ideas that have shaped human cultures, at the same time honing students’ analytic skills and helping them to think more creatively, write more carefully, and interpret difficult texts with greater care. It delves into every aspect of life and examines the foundations and applications of every discipline.

The Department of Philosophy at Texas Tech is committed to excellence in undergraduate and graduate education, research, and service to the Texas Tech community. Students benefit from small upper level courses, and students can expect to receive a great deal of individual attention from faculty. Our faculty have particular strengths in Ethics, Aesthetics, and History of Philosophy.

Why Study in the College of Arts & Sciences?

A liberal arts education from our College may be the best option for your future. In the world today the average person changes careers at least 5 times. The College of Arts & Sciences gives you the opportunity to discover, create, advance, analyze, disseminate and preserve knowledge. You will develop the incredibly transferable skills of how to problem-solve, think critically and strategically and integrate what you learn in textbooks with the real-world issues that we all face today. With a degree from our college, you will know how to do much more than just one job when you graduate. You will have the resources and training to adapt your education to almost any career field that offers itself to you.

A Wealth of Opportunities Await

- Undergraduate Research
  The Center for Active Learning and Undergraduate Engagement (CALUE) is committed to supporting and increasing undergraduate participation in active learning at Texas Tech University. The Center serves as the centralized location for undergraduate students, faculty, staff, and community organizations interested in participating in the following active learning programs: Service Learning, Undergraduate Research, Professional Internship, and Study Abroad. Texas Common Course Number System (TCCNS)

The Texas Common Course Numbering System (TCCNS) aids students in the transfer of general academic courses between Texas public colleges and universities throughout the state. Course recommendations in this transfer guide are expressed in TCCNS designations.

Applying Transfer Hours to a Four-year Degree

- The Transfer Evaluation Office in the Office of the Registrar at Texas Tech determines which courses taken at another institution may be accepted for credit.

- A maximum of 66 semester credit hours from two-year institutions may be applied toward the baccalaureate degree at four-year institutions. Although, all credit hours presented on the sending institution's transcripts will be evaluated and equivalent college level courses posted to the student's academic record.

- The academic associate dean of the Texas Tech college in which a student enrolls has authority for determining which courses will be applied toward the specific degree program chosen.

- Students must earn a grade of C or better for all courses fulfilling requirements in majors, minors, or specialization's.

For more information on transfer course equivalencies, access the Texas Tech Transfer Equivalency Guidebooks:

https://www.depts.ttu.edu/registrar/private/transfer/

Steps to Apply:

- Admission Requirements
  Application from applytexas.org

  $60 application fee or fee waiver (student must provide information supporting fee waiver; for more specifics on what qualifies for waiver, visit the admissions site here: http://www.admissions.ttu.edu/index.php/application-fee/)

Admission Review

If you do not meet assured admission requirements but have at least a 2.00 cumulative GPA, an admissions committee will evaluate your potential based on other criteria:

- Academics—Types of courses taken and pattern of progress, as well as coursework taken leading toward a major
- Student-submitted essay—Explanation of the decision to transfer to Texas Tech, reasons for past academic performance and plans to ensure future academic success
- Extracurricular activities/employment information—Leadership and work experience, special talents or awards, or any other information relevant to the admission decision
