2015 Haragan Lecturer
Ginger Kerrick,
NASA Assistant Director for the International Space Station
“Lessons in Leadership: Personal and Professional”
FRIDAY, April 10th
12:00-1:00pm
Architecture 102
Boxed lunch available and $1 parking in the parking garage at Flint Ave. and 18th St. (Across from the Architecture Building)

- First female Hispanic Flight Director
- TTU Distinguished Alumni Award in 2004 and 2012
- A Texas Executive Women and Women on the Move

Ms. Kerrick graduated from Hanks High School in El Paso, Texas in 1987. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in physics from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas in 1991, followed by a Masters in physics in 1993. Ms. Kerrick is serving in the Mission Control Center at the NASA Johnson Space Center as a Flight Director who has, to date, supported 13 International Space Station and five joint shuttle missions.

Interesting in supporting this event? Donors, please contact the Senior Development Officer for Arts & Sciences, at 806.742.3833

This event is sponsored by WT-AWIS, CISER and the President Donald R. Haragan Lecture Series Endowment, begun in 2001 in recognition of Dr. Haragan’s unparalleled, distinguished service to Texas Tech University.