Income Verification

Students may qualify for the TRIO Student Support Services program based on income level and as such we are required to verify household income. Please note, household income level is not the only way to qualify for the program and your household income level does automatically disqualify your student or guarantee acceptance to the program.

Federal TRIO Programs
Current-Year Low-Income Levels

(Effective January 19, 2023 until further notice)

Size of Family Unit	48 Contiguous States, D.C., and Outlying Jurisdictions	Alaska	Hawaii
1	$21,870	$27,315	$25,155
2	$29,580	$36,960	$34,020
3	$37,290	$46,605	$42,885

6	$60,420	$75,540	$69,480
7	$68,130	$85,185	$78,345
8	$75,840	$94,830	$87,210

For family units with more than eight members, add the following amount for each additional family member: $7,710 for the 48 contiguous states, the District of Columbia and outlying jurisdictions; $9,645 for Alaska; and $8,865 for Hawaii.

The term "low-income individual" means an individual whose family's taxable income for the preceding year did not exceed 150 percent of the poverty level amount.

The figures shown under family income represent amounts equal to 150 percent of the family income levels established by the Census Bureau for determining poverty status. The poverty guidelines were published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in the Federal Register on January 19, 2023 and are effective as of January 19, 2023.

First-generation Status Verification

Students may qualify for the TRIO Student Support Services program based on first-generation in college status. Please note, first-generation status is not the only way to qualify for the program and your student's first-generation status does not automatically disqualify the student or guarantee acceptance to the program. Answer the question below to help us determine your student's first-generation status.

Which of the following describes the student?

A student with natural or adoptive parents who did not receive a baccalaureate (4-year) degree

A student who, prior to the age of 18, regularly resided with and received support from only one parent and whose supporting parent did not receive a baccalaureate (4-year) degree

A student who, prior to the age of 18, did not regularly reside with or receive support from a natural or an adoptive parent.
