

Name and Area of Specialization

Mark Miller, PhD
Meat Science

In 250 words or less explain the nature of your research

Research areas we have for students are: Meat Quality and Consumer Studies for Tenderness, Juiciness and Flavor to determine the consumer purchasing behavior and questions, Animal Growth and Nutrition, Food Safety, Food Security as it relates to human nutrition and consumption of meat to improve human health.

Do you accept undergraduates into you lab for research

Yes X            No

Are you currently accepting undergraduates into your lab

Yes X            No

Do you offer pay to undergraduate researchers

Yes X            No            Depends (Explain: )

What is the undergraduate's role?

Part of a team            Work independently            Both X

Other (Explain: )

How many hours/wk do you expect student to be in lab

20/week

In 250 words or less, what are your expectations for an undergraduate researcher:

We expect the students to be focused on the development of their skills as a research while serving others unselfishly in the collection of the highest quality data. We expect them to be honest, honorable, unselfish, caring and Pursuing excellence in all they do.

We expect them to learn and follow the scientific method and publish and present the highest quality data.

Will Students be included in presentations and/or publication if they meet expectations

Yes X

No

Do you have any course prerequisites before students are accepted in your lab? NO

How do you prefer for students to contact you to inquire about working in your lab?

My cell phone or email. 806-438-4979, mfmrraider@aol.com