87th Annual
Pig Roast

The annual Pig Roast has long been a highlight of the academic year in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. Starting as an informal gathering of Texas Tech agriculture students some eighty-seven years ago, it has become a traditional event at which the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, its students, faculty, and administration honor teams and individuals who have distinguished themselves and the University during the past year. Scholarship donors and recipients, as well as outstanding leaders in the field of agriculture, are also recognized and honored. This event also provides an opportunity to say Thank You to individuals and companies who have assisted in activities of the College. The Pig Roast is sponsored by the Student Agricultural Council of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources.

The Student Agricultural Council

The Student Agricultural Council is composed of two representatives from each of the departmental clubs and the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources' Student Senators. A representative from the Office of the Dean of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources serves as a sponsor.

The purpose of the Student Agricultural Council is to establish a working relationship between students, faculty, administration and the agricultural community for the betterment of the students and the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources.

The goals of the Agricultural Council are:

1. To establish sound relations among agricultural students.
2. To establish a common bond among agricultural organizations at Texas Tech.
3. To foster better relations with the faculty.
4. To establish better communications within the university system.
5. To strive to maintain and improve relations within the agricultural community.

The annual Pig Roast is only one of the functions sponsored by the Agricultural Council to attain these goals.

Intercollegiate Departmental Teams

The College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources has a long history of success and accomplishments in intercollegiate competition. The various judging teams, academic teams and the rodeo teams are integral parts of the College and our students' education.

In fact, the College had a judging pavilion before it had a classroom. The Livestock Judging Pavilion was one of the first buildings on the Texas Tech campus and one of the College's two initial buildings. Over the years, the Pavilion has been one of the most versatile buildings on campus—livestock judging, basketball games, Pig Roast and landscape architecture studio. Today, it still symbolizes the commitment to and importance of intercollegiate teams as a critical educational component of the College.

The first Pig Roast, held in 1929 at the Livestock Pavilion, was a send off for the livestock judging team prior to their departure for the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago. A pig was roasted in a pit and the meal was enjoyed by the judging team and all who came to support them. Every year since, the Pig Roast has honored the College's intercollegiate teams in this time-honored tradition.

Gerald W. Thomas Outstanding Agriculturalists Awards

Est. 1969, the Gerald W. Thomas Outstanding Agriculturalist Awards recognize people who contribute immeasurably to the general good of the agricultural industry. Individuals eligible for the awards must be successful and distinguished in his or her profession, business, and other worthy endeavors. They must have demonstrated significant contributions to the agricultural industry and be recognized by their contemporaries for their contributions.

Three individuals are selected each year to receive the awards; one each in the categories of agricultural production, agribusiness, and public service. Nominations are accepted from former Outstanding Agriculturalist Award recipients, administration, and faculty of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources.

Former award recipients and College administration rank the nominees in each category and submit their selections to the Dean of the College. The award recipients are announced and honored each year in conjunction with the annual Pig Roast.

Glenn Schur

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION

Plainview native Glenn Schur is owner and operator of Glenn Schur Farms. He graduated from Texas Tech in 1980 with a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Economics. While interning as a student for Great Plains Ag Credit, Glenn soon recognized that farming was his true calling.

Although he started out co-farming with his father, their operation soon became known as Glenn Schur Farms. Glenn's farming operation is all encompassing and a family affair. Together, they manage Schur Limousin, a 100 plus registered cow/calf operation, and farm more than 1,800 acres of cotton, sorghum, seed sorghum, food sorghum, seed millet, and wheat. Additionally, he has raised High Tanning Sorghum for the past seven years specifically for the production of Grain Berry Cereal, a cereal that is high in antioxidants and found in local Texas grocery markets. Despite suffering a serious injury in 2007 that affected his farming abilities, he soon recovered and has resumed full operations and management of his cattle and farming business.

In addition to farming, a passion of Glenn's is underground water conservation in the High Plains for future agriculture operations. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Texas Alliance for Water Conservation, a joint effort between Texas Tech University, Texas A&M University, the High Plains Underground Water District, and the State of Texas. Glenn is a member of the Texas Sorghum Association, the Hale County Stock Show and Panhandle Parade of Breeds. He is also a 4-H shooting sports certified instructor, involved with the United Farm Industries, and he sits on the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources Advisory Board.

He received a College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources Distinguished Alumni Award in 2008, and the Blue Legacy Award in 2011 as an agriculture award for Schur Farms. Glenn also participated in the Texas Agriculture Lifetime Leadership Program, commonly known as TALL, and received the Distinguished TALL Alumnus Award in 2012.

Glenn and his wife Dina have one son, Layton, a sophomore Agricultural Economics major at Tech. Glenn is an active member of the St. Paul Lutheran Church of Plainview, and attributes his success to his religion and belief in God. In his spare time, Glenn enjoys clay bird shooting, bird hunting, and fishing with his son.

Patti Jones

PUBLIC SERVICE

Lubbock native Patti Jones was elected Lubbock County Commissioner, Precinct four in 2000. She is the first woman to sever on the Commissioners Court and has been instrumental in many positive changes in Lubbock County. She accredits her success to her up bringing in a multi-generational farming family. Patti says she learned all of her people skills, financial handling skills, how to treat others right, and her simple, common sense approach to life and choices, from growing up in an agriculture based family.

It is evident that Patti has really taken these lessons to heart in her every day job. As Commissioner, she has improved customer service for handling payments in the county, overseen the consolidation of the Road & Bridge divisions for more efficient service, implemented the first ever-strategic plan for Lubbock County, and implemented an award-winning Vote Center system. Patti has two sons, Chad and Casey, a 2003 graduate of CASNR with a bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Agriculture. She credits all of her success to the grace of God and couldn't be happier that the legacy of her husband can be carried on through her and her family.
