

Mary Crites, AIA
Architect

Education

Bachelor of Architecture, Texas Tech University, 1982

Professional Registrations

Registered Architect, TX, 11483
Registered Architect, NM, 3057

Years of experience: 39

Professional and Civic Affiliations:

Texas Society of Architects- Past Secretary, Chair of TAC and Government Affairs Committee Chair
Lubbock Chapter AIA- Past President, State Director, Treasurer, TAC Chapter Chair and Board member
Lubbock Heritage Society-Current member of Board of Directors, Past President and Treasurer
City of Lubbock Urban Design and Historic Preservation Commission, Current Chair
Caprock Girl Scout Council- Past Board Member and Chair
Girl Scouts of the Texas Oklahoma Plains Council- Past Board member
Friends of Camp Mary White, Inc. – Current Treasurer

---

Ms. Crites is a Lubbock based architect with 30 years of experience focusing primarily on institutional facilities. During that time Ms. Crites has designed fifteen award-winning projects. Prior to forming her own company in 2012, she was a principal with a large regional multi-disciplinary EA firm. She has also been an adjunct professor and visiting consultant with the College of Architecture at Texas Tech University.

The following highlights Ms. Crites career design experience:

- 80 plus higher education projects at 14 different campuses across Texas and New Mexico
  - The first LEED building on the TTU campus
- More than 30 healthcare projects
- Over a dozen preservation projects/studies of historic properties
- 40 plus governmental projects for various municipal, state and federal agencies
- Variety of corporate projects with local and multi-national companies

---

Ms. Crites work experience includes

Mary K. Crites, AIA -ARCHITECT – Sole Proprietor 2012- current

Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, Inc – Various positions culminating in partnership 1990-2012

McLarty, Smith Meyer, Inc. – Intern Architect, Project Architect 1985 - 1990

END

