Community Carryout is a food pickup service that collaborates with businesses and restaurant owners to effectively manage their time and resources by enabling them to schedule excess food pickups in advance. Through this approach, they can ensure that all surplus food is properly accounted for and donated to local food banks and soup kitchens, thereby addressing the pressing issue of food waste and simultaneously supporting those in need.

BIO

Alexis opened her small restaurant 6 months ago. She often gets overwhelmed with how many different tasks she has to complete daily.

Alexis enjoys giving back to her community. She is environmentally conscious and always looks to recycle when she can.

WANTS

- Decrease the amount of food waste created by her business.

- An easy way to donate food, while allowing the business to stay anonymous.

"I want to give back but I have no extra time"

FRUSTRATIONS

Wants to give back, but finds herself too busy to take time to volunteer. Doesn't want food donation to decrease current profits.

FAQ

KNOW YOUR LIMITS.

As members of the Texas Tech community, we must take responsibility for the well-being of ourselves and our peers. That's why we are proud to launch the "Know Your Limits" campaign, which highlights the importance of using Texas Tech's Raider Ride service to ensure the safety of students. By using the Raider Ride service, we can eliminate the need for anyone to get behind the wheel while under the influence. The service is free, reliable, and available to all students.

The "Flamin' Dogs" is a yearly festival in Chicago, Illinois that celebrates the beloved hotdog. This event brings together both hotdog enthusiasts and restaurant owners who showcase their mouth-watering creations. In addition to the various vendors, this year's festival also serves as the venue for the highly anticipated "Hotdog Eating Championship," sponsored by "Nathan's Famous®." Whether you prefer classic hotdogs, Korean Cheese Dogs, or Corndogs, the festival offers a wide array of options that cater to everyone's taste buds.
