C. Understanding Societies and Cultures

1. Historical Consciousness (American History) (6 hours)
HIST 2300, 2301, 3310

Students will normally fulfill this requirement by completing HIST 2300 and 2301. However, this requirement may be satisfied by juniors and seniors by completing any 6 hours from among the American history courses listed under the Department of History portion of the catalog. Also, 3 semester hours of Texas history may be substituted for 3 of the American history hours. (Students who receive the maximum of 6 hours credit by examination for HIST 2300, 2301 must take or have taken an additional 3-hour class for U.S. history course to meet the state requirement for graduation.)

2. Political Science (U.S. and Texas) (6 hours)
POLS 1301, 2302

Students will normally fulfill this requirement by completing POLS 1301, which is a prerequisite for all other political science courses, and POLS 2302. If a student earns a grade of A or B in POLS 1301, he or she may substitute in place of POLS 2302 one of the upper-level courses marked with an asterisk in the course list under the Department of Political Science portion of the catalog. (Permission of the instructor may be required for such substitution.) Students who receive the maximum of 6 hours credit by examination for POLS 1301, 2302 must take or have taken an additional 3-hour classroom political science course to meet the state requirement for graduation.
