Because your TTU Cumulative GPA has continued to be below 2.0, you have not met the requirements for satisfactory academic progress required by the College of Arts & Sciences at Texas Tech University. As a result, you are required to meet with the A&S Office of Student Success to begin an academic recovery process during the _____ semester. This recovery process will end once you meet the requirements to return to good academic standing (at least 2.0 TTU cumulative GPA).

The goal of the A&S Office of Student Success is to help you identify those factors relevant to you and help you work through them by providing you with information needed to achieve your goal of earning a degree at Texas Tech University.

Identify motivation factors and graduation goals.

Successful individuals understand the power of reflection. By understanding yourself, you understand your motivations, dreams, goals, and the steps to take. Start by asking yourself these questions:

My motivation to invest in my education and obtain my degree is....

When I graduate, my goal is to use my degree by... (becoming a..., working as..., researching with..., etc.)

Establish short term & long term goals.

Write your most important goals for your success at Texas Tech University in the spaces provided below.

Short Term Goal: During this semester, it is my goal to accomplish:

Long Term Goal: By the time I graduate, it is my goal to accomplish:
