

RESEARCH
DEVELOPMENT &
COMMUNICATIONS

TEXAS TECH
Research & Innovation

Communications Student Assistant

POSITION DESCRIPTION

This is a part-time student assistant position supporting the Office of Research Development & Communications. The student assistant will help create multimedia content for the Office of Research & Innovation's website and social media, including filming and editing research-focused videos. Responsibilities may also include interviewing faculty, students, staff and alumni, writing and editing web content, and assisting with website design and development. Pay: $10 hr

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience with shooting and/or editing video.
- Strong writing, editing and interviewing skills
- Experience with Associated Press writing style
- Familiarity with social media forums
- Experience with design software, such as Adobe Premiere and Photoshop

TO APPLY

Scan this QR code and fill out the form!

Applications close August 31st

