

2016 C.O.W AWARD WINNER

Champion of Women (COW) Award,
Dr. David Klein, Toxicology, The Institute for Environmental and Human Health (TIEHH) david.klein@ttu.edu

“Dr. Klein has been an inspirational graduate professor and our devoted research mentor. His enthusiasm for science is contagious and makes the research fun and interesting. He has an open door policy and his support for all of his students exceeds typical duties and his mentoring extends into both personal and professional life decisions. He challenges his students to travel and present their research and finds financial support for them to be able to do so.

Dr. Klein does not judge students or faculty by gender and encourages us to all to be successful and participate in WT-AWIS.” -Nominators: Amanda French amanda.french@ttu.edu; Amanda Cano amanda.parra@ttu.edu; Michelle Mcmanus michelle.mcmanus@ttu.edu
