

2016 O.W.L AWARD WINNER

The 2016 OWL award winner is Dr. Audra N. Morse, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies, TTU Whitacre College of Engineering (WCOE)
audra.n.morse@ttu.edu

“I am nominating Dr. Morse because of her dedication and commitment to inspire, challenge, and help students. Dr. Morse takes time out of her busy schedule to collaborate on creating a mentorship program for females in engineering. She is a positive, hardworking, well known individual on the Texas Tech campus. Her name and dedication are recognized by individuals inside and outside the WCOE. She leads the Engineering Opportunities Center which provides retention, placement and academic support services to students. She serves on a number of professional organization committees and authored and/or co-authored more than 36 published journal articles and in the last eight years has participated in research with other collaborators totaling over $10 million. She has received the two highest teaching honors at Texas Tech, the Chancellor's Council Distinguished Teaching Award and the President's Excellence in Teaching Award.” -Nominator:
