

BA Languages & Cultures - German Studies Major Checklist

Please note: This checklist does NOT replace a meeting with your advisor, Carla Burrus. However, it will help you identify what you need and make a plan.

The Bachelor of Arts in Languages and Cultures majoring in German Studies consists of 33 hours at the 2000-level and above, including CMLL 2305. You need to complete 9 hours (3 courses) of communication Literacy (CL) Courses. You need to receive a “C” letter grade or better in a course to count it for the major.

Please use the list provided below to track your progress and plan your studies.

Please note: You can “skip” 3 courses total of the 3000 or 4000-level courses listed below to reach the 33 required hours. Independent Study is NOT offered regularly (i.e. this is the most likely course to skip).
