Experience Pura Vida

San José, the capital city of Costa Rica, blends urban life and natural beauty; more than 800 miles of coastline and acres of lush rain forests lie just a short drive from this diverse metropolitan center.

Dive into a country renowned for its amazing biodiversity and rich Latin American culture. The Study + Internship in San José program allows you to make steady progress toward your academic degree while developing practical skills in fields such as visual arts, finance, tourism, and more. You have the option to take courses at Veritas University alongside your internship during the summer and semester programs.
