

Randolph Lee Reddick
College of Mass Communications
Texas Tech University
Box 43082
Lubbock, Texas 79409-3082
(806-834-0776)
r.reddick@ttu.edu

EDUCATION:

1991 Ph.D., Ohio University. Major: Mass Communication, Minor: Business Administration (MBA sequence). Areas of concentration: 1) media management and economics 2) mass communication theory and research
1968 California Lifetime Teaching Credential, Secondary Education; Subjects: English, biological sciences, physical sciences
1966 AB, University of Southern California. Major: English, Minors: chemistry and biology

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE:

2003-present Morris Professor of Journalism, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas. Journalism Department Chairman 2005-2012; Assistant Dean for Technology 2015-present.
2004-present distance faculty, journalism MA program, Ateneo de Manila University (Philippines), teaching computer assisted reporting
2000-2003 Vice President, journalism education, Foundation for American Communications, Pasadena
1996-1999 Lecturer, University of Southern California
1992-1995 Associate Director, Texas Tech University School of Mass Communications, Lubbock, Texas
1990-1996 Assistant Professor, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas
1988-1990 Teaching Associate, E.W. Scripps School of Journalism at Ohio University.
1967-1970 Teacher of high school English and guidance in Los Angeles City Schools

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2002- present General Partner, Net Presence, a Web development and consulting consortium
1996-2000 Director & Founding Editor, FACSNET, an online information service for journalists
1973-1988 Managing Editor, The Daily Press, Paso Robles, California. During 1973-79 this position included responsibility for wire and general news editing
1973-1988 Corporate Vice President, Paso Robles Newspapers, Inc. in charge of news, pre-press production, and business operations. This position required me to serve as editor (1974-1988) of the North County Journal and (1977-1988) of The Central Coast Times, both weekly newspapers part of a TMC package with The Daily Press. Directed computerization of business (1981) and news and classified (1982) operations. Established computerized telecommunications network (1985).

1976-1978 Columnist (1976-77), Editor (1977-78), California Jaycee, quarterly magazine and official publication of the California Jaycees
1970-1972 General assignment reporter-photographer, The Daily Press, Paso Robles, Calif.

REFEREED PUBLICATIONS:

Reddick, Randy, "Newsroom Computers: Threat or Opportunity? A study of Computer Utility Among Ohio Newspapers," Southwestern Mass Communication Journal, 1992, Vol. 7, No. 2, pp. 176-187

NONREFEREED PUBLICATIONS:

Reddick, Randy, "The Media and Disasters: Pan Am 103," a review in Journalism History, Summer, 1995.

REFEREED CONFERENCE PAPERS/PRESENTATIONS:

Luo, Yunjuan and Randy Reddick. (2015, October 22). "Participation Gap in a Digital Age: A U.S.-China Comparative Study." Presented the ICA Partnership for Progress on the Digital Divide in Phoenix, Arizona.

Luo, Yunjuan, Randy Reddick, and Sha Li. (2014, August 8). "Youth, Digital Literacy & Divides: A U.S. – China Comparative Study." Presented at the AEJMC annual conference in Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

Luo, Yunjuan, Randy Reddick, and Sha Li. (2014, May 22). "Crossing the Divide: The Role of Self-Taught Learning in Developing Digital Literacy." Presented at the International Communication Association annual convention in Seattle, Washington.

Luo, Yunjuan, Randy Reddick, and Sha Li. (2013, August 9). "Teach thyself: The surest path to digital literacy." Presented at the annual conference of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, Washington, D.C. Top paper in the research session of Small Programs Interest Group

Bates, Charles and Randy Reddick, "Excellence and Management Style at Newspapers," Southwest Symposium, October 2, 1995, in San Angelo, Texas

Reddick, Randy, "News, the Northridge Quake, and the Internet: A Study of Information Utility" Southwest Symposium in Flagstaff, Arizona, October 3, 1994

Reddick, Randy, "Women Managers at Ohio Newspapers: Where They Are and Where They Are Not" Southwest Symposium in Lubbock, Texas, October 11, 1993

Reddick, Randy, "Employee Ownership at Milwaukee and Cincinnati: A Study in Success and Failure" AEJMC in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, August 6, 1992

Reddick, Randy, "Newsroom Computers: Threat or Opportunity? A study of Computer Utility Among Ohio Newspapers," Southwest Symposium in Corpus Christi, Texas, October 6, 1991 – A Top Five paper at conference.

Reddick, Randy, "Corporate Politics Gone Public: Collapse of the Cincinnati Enquirer 1955-56" Southwest Symposium in Lewisville, Texas September 30, 1990.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS/INVITED PRESENTATIONS/TEXTBOOKS AND BOOK CHAPTERS

Books

- Reddick, Randy and Elliot King, The Online Journalist: Using the Internet and Other Electronic Sources, Fort Worth: Harcourt Brace. Third edition 2001. Textbook adopted at colleges and universities throughout the United States on both graduate and undergraduate levels. Abroad, The Online Journalist has had favorable reviews in the U.S., England, the Netherlands, Japan, and Sweden. Translated into Russian, Albanian, and Indonesian. First edition 1995, Second edition 1997, Third edition 2001.
- Reddick, Randy and Elliot King, The Online Student: Making the Grade on the Internet, Fort Worth: Harcourt Brace, 1996. An inter-disciplinary textbook.
- Bruning, David, Randy Reddick, and Elliot King, Saunders Internet Guide for Astronomy, Philadelphia: Saunders Publishing, 1996.
- Mayer, Larry, Randy Reddick, and Elliot King, Saunders Internet Guide for Earth Science, Philadelphia: Saunders Publishing, 1996.
- Dr. Leo F. Stanley, compiled and edited by Randy Reddick, San Miguel at the Turn of the Century, Fresno, California: Frontier Press, 1978.

Book Chapters / Related Articles

- Reddick, Randy. "Grokking WebCT" in Best Practices in Journalism Education in the Information Age, Manila, Philippines, Ateneo de Manila University, 2005.
- Reddick, Randy, and Jim Fickess, "New Media Summit" in Journalism and Mass Communication Education: 2001 and Beyond, Columbia, South Carolina: Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, 2001
- "FIDONet Made Me Do It" in When Nerds and Words Collide: Reflections on the Development of Computer Assisted Reporting, St. Petersburg, Florida: The Poynter Institute for Media Studies, 1999.
- "Newspaper Competition" in Margaret A. Blanchard, Ed. History of the Mass Media in the United States Chicago: Fitzroy Dearborn Publishers, 1998.

Invited seminars / workshops

- June 16, 2006 Fort Worth, Texas. Teaching seminar "Fast researching on the Internet" at national conference of Investigative Reporters Editors (IRE).
- June 15, 2006 Fort Worth, Texas. Teaching seminar "Best uses of Internet searches and sites" at national conference of Investigative Reporters Editors (IRE).
- July 29, 2003 Kansas City, Missouri. Panel organizer and Facilitator, "Convergence at Work: Point – Counterpoint" Lead off session for a special day long pre-convention workshop at the 86th Annual Convention of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.
- May 30, 2002 San Francisco, California. Teaching seminar "Internet Data: Finding the good stuff" at the national conference of Investigative Reporters and Editors
- May 9-10, 2001 Borrego Springs, California. Taught Computer Assisted Reporting to the national meeting of Copley Newspapers / Copley News Service editors

March 30, 2001 Indianapolis, Indiana. Taught Computer Assisted Reporting Workshops to the Society of Professional Journalists Region 5 Conference and the Indianapolis Writers Workshops

September 15, 2000 Lexington, Kentucky. Taught lab sessions “Internet I” and “Internet II” for the annual conference of the National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting

July 6-7, 2000 London, England : Taught lab sessions of Computer Assisted Reporting to journalists from the United Kingdom, Eastern and Western Europe, and Scandinavia attending the annual NetMedia conference at City University of London

May 23-26, 2000 St. Petersburg Florida “Computer Assisted Reporting for College Educators,” guest faculty at The Poynter Institute for Media Studies

March 11-14, 1999 Boston, Massachusetts. Taught lab sessions for the annual conference of the National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting

January 21-23, 1999 St. Petersburg, Florida. “Computer Assisted Reporting: Ten Years After” A gathering of CAR “pioneers” at The Poynter Institute For Media Studies

October 22-24, 1998 Los Angeles, California. Annual convention of the Society of Professional Journalists. Organized the three-day “Newsroom of the Future”

August 6, 1998 Baltimore, Maryland. “Planning for Distance Education in Journalism and Mass Communication” panel at the AEJMC annual convention.

July 29, 1998 American Press Institute, Reston, Virginia. Discussion Leader/Trainer “Computer Assisted Reporting” an overview for City and Metro editors from North American newspapers having a circulation of 75,000 or less.

July 2-3, 1998 NetMedia98, London, England: taught five lab sessions of Computer-Assisted Reporting to journalists from the United Kingdom, Eastern and Western Europe, and Scandinavia

June 19-20, 1998 Chicago, Illinois. A Journalism Conference, “Welfare Reform: Finding Stories in a Sea of Data” at the Chicago Tribune. Coaching on manipulation of Census Bureau data sets using spreadsheet software.

March 7, 1998 Indianapolis, Indiana. Conducted lab workshop on “Using the Right Tools for the Right Job” on the Internet. Annual convention of the National Institute for Computer-Assisted Reporting.

November 21, 1997 American Press Institute, Reston, Virginia. Wrap-up session for the API senior editors management conference. Topic: New Media Demands.

November 20, 1997 Newhouse Newspapers, National Press Club, Washington, D.C. Conducted two workshops for reporters on using the Internet to do story research

November 6, 1997 “Keeping Up With a Digital World” Freedom Forum Pacific Coast Center, San Francisco, California

July 3-4, 1997 “Internet Research Tools and Strategies” two workshops at City University of London, U.K.

July 2, 1997 London, U.K. “What’s on the Internet and Why I should Care” A seminar for Reuters News Service senior editors.

June 5, 1997 “Using the Internet for Reporting and Research,” American Press Institute

Journalism Educators Seminar at University of Nevada, Reno

April 6, 1997 "Putting the Internet to Work," National Council of Editorial Writers meeting at University of Wisconsin, Madison

March 6-9, 1997 Beginning and Intermediate Internet classes for the National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting in Nashville, Tennessee

February 16, 1997 "Taming the 'Net'" at the National Association of Science Writers annual meeting in Seattle, Washington

September 11-12, 1996 "Using the Internet as a Research and Teaching Tool," three workshop sessions for the Florida Community College Jacksonville system

September 7, 1996 Stanford, California: Three sessions at the Computer Journalism Workshop hosted at Stanford University for the Northern California Science Writers Association and the Society of Environmental Journalists: 1) "The Internet for Chipheads," an advanced training session, 2) "Introduction to World Wide Web Surfing and Strategic Research for the Internet" and 3) "Who Says Journalists Don't do Math?"

August 22 1996 "Taming the Internet," teaching session for the National Association of Black Journalists at the NABJ annual convention in Nashville, Tennessee

August 9, 1996 "Overcoming Innumeracy: Strategies for Teaching Statistical Reasoning and Statistical Literature to Students in Journalism and Mass Communications," Preconvention panel at the AEJMC annual convention in Anaheim, California. Moderator Sharon Dunwoody, co-panelists Robert J. Griffin, Marquette; and Tom Johnson, San Francisco State University

August 9, 1996 "Exploring New Media" Preconvention workshop at the AEJMC annual convention in Anaheim, California

July 4-5, 1996 NetMedia 96, London, England. Training sessions titled "Using search engines and directories for background research" and "How to set up a regular flow of news/information." Conference organized by City University of London

June 19, 1996 National Association of Science Writers conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico, advanced session on using the Internet for science reporting

June 14, 1996 Newspaper Association of America, "Connections" in Las Vegas, Nevada, panelist for "The New Media Newsroom"

May 10, 1996 California Society of Newspaper Editors annual convention in Anaheim, California, "Ethics in Cyberspace"

September 21-24, 1995 Annual national convention of the Investigative Reporters and Editors in Cleveland, Ohio, panelist and trainer. Panel topic, "Fifty Sites You Can't do Without." Training sessions teaching journalists how to use spreadsheet software for data analysis in their work

August 7, 1995 "The Networked Classroom," Preconvention workshop at the AEJMC annual convention in Washington, D.C.

June 24, 1995 "Sourcing Stories on the Internet," West Texas Professional Chapter, Society of Professional Journalists at Lubbock, Texas

June 15, 1995 NetMedia '95 at City University, London, England: Delivered keynote address, "Who Needs a Journalist? (When Anybody can get News on Demand)"; conducted training session for journalists; participated in international panel, "Laying the Foundations" (for journalism in a digital age)

- August 11-13, 1994 Designed, organized, and staffed 18 hours of information technology workshops for journalism/mass communications faculty attending the annual convention of AEJMC in Atlanta, Georgia.
- August 12, 1993 Architect, organizer, and moderator of double teaching session at AEJMC annual national convention in Kansas City; "Finding Ports on Electronic Information Seas." Five AEJMC divisions co-sponsoring these sessions asked me to carry out the proposal. Those divisions are Communications Technology and Policy, Committee on Status of Women, Visual Communications, Mass Comm Bibliographers, and Newspapers. These were two of the best attended sessions at the conference, attracting more than 200 participants.

Invited lectures / panels

- July 12, 2012 Manila, Philippines. "Journalism Trends Amid Technological Upheaval." Asian Centre for Journalism, Strategic Planning Workshop
- March 11, 2011 St. Peter's College, Jersey City, NJ. "Collaborative Academic Media: Technology vs. Usability." Media History Exchange Advisory Board.
- June 8, 2010 Manila, Philippines. "Teaching Multimedia Journalism." Tenth Anniversary Conference of the Asian Centre for Journalism.
- May 5, 2008 Dallas, Texas. "Social Media: Landscape and Liabilities." Dallas Bar Association conference.
- August 4, 2004 Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Panel organizer and moderator, "Latest Industry Research on Broadcast and Print Journalism." Annual Convention of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.
- March 12, 2004 Cincinnati, Ohio. "How to Use the Web for Deadline and Stories" a panel at the annual conference of the National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting.
- July 29, 2003 Kansas City, Kansas. Organizing team for a day-long pre-convention experience seminar on media convergence for AEJMC annual meeting. Organizer and facilitator for opening panel, "Promises and Pitfalls of Convergence."
- August 6, 2001 Washington, D.C. Organized and moderated mini-plenary "Convergence in Action" at the AEJMC annual convention.
- February 24, 2001 Dallas, Texas. Editor and Publisher's 12th Annual Interactive Newspapers Conference and Trade Show, organized and moderated plenary panel titled "Technology Frontiers"
- August 12, 2000 Phoenix, Arizona. Organized and moderated the three-part mini-plenary "New Media Summit" at the AEJMC annual convention
- August 9, 2000 Phoenix, Arizona. "AEJMC Task Force on Teaching and Learning in the New Millennium," panelist at the AEJMC annual convention
- July 7, 2000 London, England. NetMedia 2000 Moderated panel on teaching Computer Assisted Reporting
- November 3, 1999 Barcelona, Spain "Reporting Science in the News" organized and moderated a panel for the annual NewsWorld convention
- August 4, 1998 Baltimore, Maryland. "Going the Distance: Journalism Education and

- Training” a teaching panel at the AEJMC annual convention (a pinch-hitter for Maggie Balough).
- July 2, 1998 London, England During a panel on New Media Reporting, I made a presentation on “Researching news stories on the Internet” as part of NetMedia98
- March 5, 1998 Indianapolis, Indiana “Taming the Internet: Tricks for making the Internet work for beat reporters” at the annual convention of the National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting
- July 29, 1997 “Untangling the Web We Weave,” a pre-convention workshop at the AEJMC 80th Annual Convention in Chicago
- March 6, 1997, “Free Data from the Internet,” National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting convention at Nashville, Tennessee
- February 15, 1997, “Internet as a Newsroom Tool,” Editor & Publisher Interactive Newspaper conference in Houston, Texas
- January 10, 1997 “CAR in Entertainment and General Assignment,” Virginia Press Association Annual Meeting in Roanoke, Virginia
- October 17, 1996 “Harnessing the Power of the Internet for Better Journalism,” IFRA symposium, “Beyond the Printed Word” at Geneva, Switzerland
- “Journalism Textbook of the Twenty-first Century,” at the annual AEJMC convention in Washington, D.C., August 10, 1995
- “High Tech Magazines,” at the annual AEJMC convention in Washington, D.C., August 10, 1995
- August 11, 1994 “Earthquake! Shaking Breaking News from the Internet” at the annual convention of AEJMC in Atlanta, Georgia

Presentations and consultative services

- Consultant, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, Columbia, South Carolina, 1999-present. Consultation and technical assistance on Web presence for AEJMC and ASJMC.
- Consultant, Foundation for American Communications, Pasadena, California, 2003-2009. Consultation on journalism curriculum and Web presence.
- “Jack R. Howard Science Reporting Institute.” Designed curriculum, recruited and trained faculty, conducted and moderated a week-long, intensive immersion in science for journalists on campus at California Institute of Technology June 24-29, 2002 Pasadena, California. Funded by the Scripps-Howard Foundation.
- “Covering Stem Cell Research, Cloning, and other Medical Advances.” Designed curriculum, recruited and trained faculty, obtained co-sponsors and moderated a day-long seminar for journalists. Co-sponsors included The Boston Globe, The Hartford Courant, and the New England Newspaper Association. May 9, 2002 at Cambridge, Mass.
- “Jack R. Howard Science Reporting Institute.” Designed curriculum, recruited and trained faculty, conducted and moderated a week-long, intensive immersion in science for journalists on campus at California Institute of Technology June 25-30, 2001 Pasadena, California. Funded by the Scripps-Howard Foundation.

- “Can You Believe What You See Online?” Presentation to annual convention of National Consumer League, April 28, 2001 San Diego, California.
- “Covering Biotech Advances: Medical and Ethical Dimensions.” Designed curriculum, recruited and trained faculty, conducted and moderated a three-day, intensive seminar for journalists in the dimensions of evolving biotech stories. March 23-25 at Harrison Conference Center, Lake Bluff, Illinois.
- “Jack R. Howard Science Reporting Institute.” Designed curriculum, conducted and moderated a week-long, intensive immersion in science for journalists on campus at California Institute of Technology August 14-19, 2000 at Pasadena, California. Funded by the Scripps-Howard Foundation.
- “Jack R. Howard Science Reporting Institute.” Designed curriculum, recruited and trained faculty, conducted and moderated a week-long, intensive immersion in science for journalists on campus at California Institute of Technology June 21-26, 1999 Pasadena, California. Funded by the Scripps-Howard Foundation.
- “FACSNET, an Information Service” at NetMedia97, July 3, 1997, London, U.K.
- “Online News Service” at the CyberCafe, a presentation for Newspaper Association of America annual meeting in New York, April 28-May 1, 1996
- “Announcing FACSNET” presentations in the “Digital Deli” at the annual convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington, D.C. April 16-18, 1996
- “Straining for Harmony in Cyberspace,” a presentation to the Texas Music Teachers Association during their the annual convention in Lubbock June 11, 1995. Focus was on how the Internet can be of help to music teachers
- “How Not to Become Road Kill on the Information Highway,” presentation to Nuclear Energy Institute (public relations practitioners from within the nuclear power industry) national meeting at Tucson, Arizona April 23-25, 1995.
- Consultant, Foundation for American Communications, Los Angeles, California. Non-profit organization that educational seminars and workshops for mid-career journalists throughout the United States. Consulting relative to digital publishing as well as interactive services and online research for journalists. 1995-96
- Consultant, Paso Robles Newspapers, Inc., Paso Robles, California. Independent company publishes daily and weekly newspapers of general circulation. Consulting relative to information systems, financial procedures, and newsroom management. 1988-1995.

GRANTS

- 2015-2016 Texas Holocaust and Genocide Commission. $170,000 for development of interactive classroom material teaching about the Holocaust and telling the stories of Texas soldiers who liberated Nazi death camps.
- 2003-2004 Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Singapore. $3,000 for development of Distance Education course in Computer Assisted Reporting.
- 1999-2002 Scripps-Howard Foundation, “Jack R. Howard Science Reporting Institute at Caltech” $250,000 support for program educating science writers (granted to Foundation for American Communications)

COURSES TAUGHT

Advanced Reporting, Computer Assisted Reporting, New Media Production, Media Law, News Writing, Science Reporting, Media Management, Publication Design and Graphics, Journalism History, Online Information Gathering and Dissemination

DISSERTATIONS/THESES/GRADUATE PROJECTS (* denotes chair)

Dissertations: Kris Boyle (2009).

Master's Theses: Derrick Ginter* (2009), Emily Kinsky, Charles Bates* (1994), LaDonna Buschmann* (1993), Michele Rae Atwood Freeman (1992), Jennifer Lenoir (1993), Natalie Malin (1993), George Moore* (1994), Daniel I. Panturu* (1995), Sheila Kaye Simmons (1994), Timothy Loren Triplett* (1995), Rozanne Veaser (1994), Dave C. Wohlfarth (1991).

Master's Professional Projects: Nancy Prater* (1995), Georgann Burrell

General Studies Senior Theses: Lesley Stoune Keneipp* (1993), Jenny Watt* (1993), Shay Williams (1993), Mike Lattauzio

SERVICE

Professional organizations

Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC). 2003-2005, member, Board of Directors. 2003-2005, Chair, Council of Affiliates. 2001-2003 Vice Chair Council of Affiliates. 2000-2001, Head, Newspaper Division, 2003-2005, 2000-2001, Member, Council of Divisions. 1988-present; member of Newspaper, Media Management & Economics, History, Media & Society, Media Law, and Technology & Policy divisions; National officer: AEJMC Executive Committee 2003-2005; Council of Affiliates chair, 2003-2005; Newspaper Division Head, 2000-2001; Communication Technology and Policy Chair 1990-1997. Liaison to the Newspaper Division for Communication Technology and Policy Division. National Committee 1) Joint AEJMC-ASJMC Committee on Distance Education (1997-99) 2) AEJMC Publications Committee Subcommittee on Electronic Journals. Consultant to AEJMC for online presence

Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ): National Convention 1998 (Los Angeles) Organized the showcase "Newsroom of the Future." Region 8 (Texas-Oklahoma) Trustee 1994-95. Fiduciary responsibilities for the association. academic representative for the region. Steering committee and as vice president for recharter of West Texas Chapter (1991-1992); member, 1993-95. Advisor or co-advisor to the student chapter of SPJ on the Texas Tech campus 1990-present. Chapter named outstanding student chapter in Region 8 (1994).

Investigative Reporters & Editors (IRE), member, 1994-present. Speaker and trainer at IRE national conventions in Cleveland, 1995; Los Angeles, 1999; and at San Francisco, 2002.

National Institute for Computer Assisted Reporting (NICAR), panelist, instructor and coach at national conferences 1995-2000.

International Webmasters Association, 2002- present

HTML Writers Guild, 2002-present
American Society of Newspaper Editors, member, Multimedia Committee, 2002-2003.
Radio Television News Directors Association (RTNDA), member, 1998-2003
Panhandle Press Association (PPA) member 1991-1996, 2003-present. Attend annual meeting, judge better newspaper contest.
Ohio Newspaper Association (ONA): Judge for annual Hooper Newspaper Show (1988 and 1989) and speaker at ONA's annual conventions in 1989 and 1990.
California Society of Newspaper Editors (CSNE) member and participant in annual meeting and seminars from CSNE's inception in 1984 to 1988.
California Newspaper Publishers' Association (CNPA) member and participant in various seminars and workshops 1971-1988.
American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA) member and regular participant in annual technical conference and equipment show 1980-88.
Associated Press Managing Editors (APME) member and regular participant in California-Nevada sec. conferences 1981-88.
Kappa Tau Alpha, National Journalism Honor Society 1989-present

Publication advisory boards

Editorial Advisory Board for College Media Review specifically assigned to information technology issues 1994 - present.
Editorial Board for Journalism Monographs, national/international refereed publication of AEJMC -- 1993, 1995, 1998.
Editorial Board for Southwestern Mass Communication Journal, regional publication of SWECJMC -- 1993-94.
Editorial Board for the Proceedings of the [AEJMC] Southeast Colloquium of the History, Law, and Newspaper Divisions. First line jury of papers submitted for the Stone Mountain conference in March and written critiques for the papers considered for the publication produced as a result of the conference held March 26-28, 1992.
Spring, 1992: Paper reviewer for AEJMC Media Management and Economics Division and for Communication Technology and Policy Interest Group

AWARDS/RECOGNITIONS/OFFICES:

Second Place, College of Mass Communications' L.U. Kaiser Innovative Teaching Award, 2009
AEJMC Presidential Citation for contribution to the national organization, 2001.
Identified by Poynter Institute for Media Studies as one of 22 key pioneers in development of the professional discipline of Computer Assisted Reporting, January, 1999.
First Place, School of Mass Communications' L.U. Kaiser Innovative Teaching Award, 1995. Presented by Texas Tech University Arts & Sciences Dean Jane Winer at the annual School of Mass Communications Hall of Fame Luncheon in February.
Identified in Delphi study as one of the leading experts in journalistic use of e-mail in the United States. Study conducted out of Louisiana State University, fall, 1994, by Stephen J. Moran.

Research paper, "Newsroom Computers: Threat or Opportunity? A Study of Computer Utility Among Ohio Newspapers" rated among top five papers presented at the annual symposium of the Southwest Education Council for Journalism and Mass Communication in Corpus Christi, 1991

Named Outstanding Doctoral Student in 1990 by E.W. Scripps School of Journalism at Ohio University

Chosen E.W. Scripps School of Journalism nominee for Ohio University Provost's Named Graduate Fellowship, 1989

Research Paper chosen by Ohio University College of Communication as university's entrant in the national Carol Burnett - University of Hawaii Media Ethics Scholarship Competition; paper titled "The Wake of PSA Flight 1771 -- A Study of the Impact of Herd Journalism" March, 1989

Essay entered in National Right to Work Committee's William B. Ruggles Scholarship competition awarded Honorable Mention (top 10 in nation) May, 1988

Associated Press Managing Editors association citation for outstanding contribution to AP report in both News and News photos for 1987, awarded at national convention in Seattle

"Best Series of Articles," California Newspaper Publishers' Association Better Newspapers Contest, Second Place in 1980

Listed Who's Who in the South and Southwest, 1995; Who's Who in California, 1988, 1989; Outstanding Young Men of America, 1977

Senator, Junior Chambers International (lifetime appointment)