Science By The Glass

Dr. Steve Presley is a Professor at Texas Tech University in the Department of Environmental Toxicology and is the Director of the Biological Threat Research Laboratory. He will be discussing infectious diseases at our popular Science By The Glass event tonight at 6PM at the Fox & Hound. The title of Dr. Presley's discussions is "It's just a bug bite!" Dr. Presley earned his B.S. in Animal Science from Texas Tech University, his Masters in Military Studies from the Marine Corps Command and Staff College, and his M.S./Ph.D. in Medical/Veterinary Entomology from Oklahoma State University. Before joining the TTU faculty in 2002, Dr. Presley served in the U.S. Navy as a Medical Service Corps Officer for more than 12 years. His research has primarily focused on the surveillance, prevention, and control of biological threats in the environment, especially vector-borne infectious diseases in tropical and semi-tropical environments.
