College of Engineering

Fall 2023 Seminar Series

Seminar Title: Resources for Graduate Engineering Students

Time: 2:00-2:50 PM, Friday, Sept 1, 2023

Location: Biology 101

Speaker:

Erin Burns, STEM Librarian
TTU library

Abstract:

This talk will center around the TTU library services. There will be demonstrations of engineering databases (Engineering Village, IEEE, Web of Science). We will talk about how to conduct literature reviews, using the libraries databases, as well as citation management tools. There are many tools available to you as graduate students, which you can leverage to inform your research skills and make your research profiles more visible, and the University Libraries is here to support you through your research projects.

Speaker Bio:

Ms. Erin Burns is a STEM Assistant Librarian, Personal Librarian to the Whitacre College of Engineering. She has lived in Lubbock since 2020 and enjoys hiking and crocheting. She also teaches yoga on campus at UREC in the evenings.
