PhD Student Agreement

I understand as follows:

- Admission is dependent on my receiving/having my Master’s Degree by August 2021.
- Courses at the doctoral (PhD) level cannot be taken as independent study courses. This includes all courses listed on the Course Requirements, including Foundations, Research and Program Evaluation, Counseling Core, and Minor as listed on the PhD handout and on pages 24-25 of the Admitted Student Handbook for PhD Graduate Study in Counselor Education 2021-2022.
- Transfer credits will not be accepted for any of the Counselor Education Core courses (EPCE, 27 hours).
- Transfer credit (maximum of 30 semester hours) from a CACREP approved program may be considered in the Foundations, Research and Program Evaluation, and/or Minor/Specialization areas.
- There is a progression/sequence of classes in the program. This sequence of classes must be followed each semester, including summer semesters.
- Doctoral students must be available to take a minimum of two (2) PhD EPCE classes each semester (including summer) beginning in Fall 2021.
- Failure to take the two EPCE classes each semester means that courses missed will not be offered for approximately two years, and you cannot take these missed courses by independent study or by transfer. This will result in a delay of graduation.
- Doctoral students must maintain a 3.0 GPA/semester.
- Any course in which you receive a grade of C or lower must be repeated by taking that course again and earning a grade of A or B. You may not take an Independent Study nor transfer in a course from another school to meet this requirement.
- Be aware that receiving an F/no pass in a clinical course will result in the faculty recommending to the Graduate School that the student be expelled permanently from the program.
- Dr. Bradley is the Director of the Doctoral Program, and she is responsible for approving all Degree Plans (Plans of Study). She is assigned as your Doctoral Advisor until you complete your Qualifying Examination at which time you will select a Doctoral Advisory Committee.
- Dr. Tommerdahl is the Clinical Director. When you enroll in practicum and internship courses, you may need to speak with Dr. Tommerdahl regarding approved practicum/internship sites.
- The faculty establishes dates for the Qualifying Examination (Fall and Spring Semesters). You must complete all degree coursework (includes research, electives, EPCE courses and all other courses listed on your degree plan) before taking the qualifying examination.
- I realize as per TTU Graduate School policy, I cannot enroll in EPCE 8000 until I pass my Qualifying Examination and be admitted to candidacy with the exception of enrolling in one hour of EPCE 8000 in the semester I take my Qualifying Examination. I further understand that if I fail to pass my Qualifying Examination, the course will be changed to EPCE 7000.
- I understand that information regarding the dissertation proposal and the dissertation can be found in the Admitted Student Handbook for PhD Graduate Study in Counselor Education 2021-2022, and I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to read the information and follow the instructions regarding the dissertation process including the part that it is clear that students do not request to rush the proposal and dissertation process. It typically takes 3.5 to 5 years to complete the PhD process.

Dispositions

Dispositions have been defined by Spurgeon, et al. (2012) as the core values, attitudes, behaviors, and beliefs needed to become a competent counselor. Essentially, these authors are positing that it takes more than knowledge and skills to become an effective counselor. The Counselor Education faculty agree with the importance of dispositions. Accordingly, the faculty endorse and promote the dispositions listed below. Please note the list is exemplary not comprehensive. Further, in instances where students do not practice and subscribe to the dispositions, the faculty may recommend to the Texas Tech University Graduate School that the student be dismissed from the Counselor Education program.

Examples of Dispositions include:

- Respect for human dignity, human rights, and social justice;
- Adherence to Multicultural Acceptance and Advocacy practice;
- Display of emotional stability inside/outside of Texas Tech University;
- Display of good professional behaviors inside/outside of Texas Tech University (e.g., in the classroom, at conferences);
- Display of strong personal characteristics including but not limited to commitment, dependability, flexibility, honesty, integrity, openness to self and others, respect, tolerance for ambiguity, trustworthiness, and the ability to shift from sympathy to empathy;
- Practices good boundaries with others (e.g., at TTU, at meetings, at professional conferences);
- Exhibits a strong understanding about and implementation of ethical codes, ethical practices, and ethical decision-making;
- Understands legal issues and laws;
- Exhibits self-awareness;
- Exhibits critical thinking skills;
- Exhibits academic honesty.

NOTE: Any documented use of illegal drugs, excessive drinking to the point of danger to self and others, or any violation of the Texas Tech Student Code of Conduct will result in disciplinary action which may include recommendation to the Texas Tech Graduate School for dismissal from the program.

Students must understand that dispositions are an integral part of the student’s training in both the MED and PhD programs. The Counselor Education faculty will endorse, enforce, and sanction the dispositions.
