

Educational Psychology Ph.D. Application- Supplemental Requirements

Resume – Contact information; education; professional experience; honors and awards; publications/presentations (if any); professional organization membership; consulting or advisory activities

Applicant Statement – A statement of purpose not exceeding three pages, double-spaced that includes the applicant's prior education, experiences, and/or training that have prepared the applicant for graduate work in EPSY; and educational and career goals. Students must identify to fit one of the following specialization options: Development and Learning Sciences, Research, Evaluation, and Measurements, or School Psychology.

Also, please identify one (or more) faculty member's area of research and interests which align with your own. You can find the full list of EPSY faculty on the program page here.

Three recommendation letters – Please provide three recommendation letters from professional or academic references.

Writing Sample – Please provide a writing sample that is academic in nature (e.g. an undergraduate research paper, Honors thesis, or a master's thesis).

GRE Scores – Your GRE scores must be from within the last five years. Please request that ETS send an official score report to Texas Tech University (institution code 6827).

To find the most up-to-date information on the application process, please visit the College of Education Graduate Application Process page.