

C&I General track PhD

Materials to submit:

Ph.D.:

1. Resume: Contact information; education; professional experience; honors and awards; publications/presentations; membership in professional organization/related to education; consulting or advisory activities in education
2. Statement of Purpose:
Demonstrate your professional experiences related to the general track in Curriculum & Instruction (2 or 3 pages, no more than 750 words)
 - How have your background and experiences motivated you to pursue a doctoral degree in the general track of Curriculum and Instruction?
 - What are your research interests and why do you want to pursue them?
 - Why are you applying for the general track? Which C&I faculty member you would wish to work with?
 - What are your educational or professional goals with this specific terminal degree?
3. Academic Writing Sample: Academic writing samples show the quality of your academic work and writing proficiency (e.g., published articles and book chapters, or papers written during your master or undergraduate studies).
4. Three Letters of Recommendation: One-to-two-page letters of recommendation from individuals in academic or academic adjacent fields who can discuss your professional performance and/or scholastic ability.
5. Unofficial Transcripts of Undergraduate and Master's Degrees
6. GRE scores