Additional Questions

Please respond to the following questions so that we can learn more about you, your experiences, and your interests in tutoring (250 words each).

1. Why would you like to become a writing consultant? How do you think being a consultant will help you to reach your educational and/or professional goals? What will be your greatest challenge in this job?
2. Have you ever been tutor or consulted with someone on an assignment? Describe your experiences and discuss how you might use them to become a better consultant yourself.
3. Why did you choose the writing samples you submitted? Choose one of the samples and describe if and how you would revise it if given the opportunity to do so.
