RESILIENCE & RETENTION CONFERENCE

Todd Chambers

Assistant Vice Provost for Academic & Career Advising,
Office of the Provost
Texas Tech University

Dr. Todd Chambers is the Assistant Vice Provost for Academic & Career Advising at Texas Tech University. As part of the Academic Innovation and Student Success team, he provides leadership and support that contribute to the academic success and positive student experiences with the goal of advancing strategies in the areas of academic and career advising. Areas of responsibility include the University Career Center and University Advising (Pre-Professional Health Careers and eXplore Advising).

Prior to this role, Chambers served as associate dean of undergraduate affairs and department chair in the College of Media & Communication. In these positions, he managed undergraduate recruiting, retention, advising, outreach, engagement, career placement and student success strategies. In addition, he helped launch student media initiatives such as The Hub@TTU and Double T Insider.

Chambers earned the Ph.D. in Communication from the University of Tennessee (2000), a M.A. in Mass Communication (1994) and a B.A. in Journalism (1988) from Texas Tech University.
