RESILIENCE & RETENTION CONFERENCE

Kelsey Kimzey

Program Director of Resilience & Retention Advising,
Honors College

Texas Tech University

Kelsey is a proud Lubbockite who has been working with the Honors College since 2020. She has always had a passion for education, earning a Bachelor of Art in Secondary English Education from McMurry University in 2017, and a Masters in Higher Education Administration from Texas Tech University in 2019. She loves working with students and brainstorming with them to find their passion. Along with her role as an advisor, she directs the R&R advising program and coordinates the Honors Tutoring Corps.
