Our RRO Webpages

First-Year Experience Program

- All FYE courses offer a core curriculum credit.
- Some FYEs have pre-reqs or co-reqs. See the online booklet.
- Enroll in your FYE & its attached LCG section simultaneously.
- IS 1100 is probably unnecessary for most Honors students.
- FYEs are filled without permits from advisors, so you DO NOT need permission to enroll in just your FYE/LCG.

Taking Non-FYE Honors Courses

- You must request a permit from us to take any non-FYE Honors course (i.e. CHEM 1307, MATH 1451)! See the info we sent to you at your TTU email address on May 20th with instructions. If you're lost, email us at honors.ttu.edu.
- Fill out the Permit Request Form, complete with your tentative planned fall schedule blocked in.
- Two days before your RRO Session dates, check your Student Dashboard to see if your requested course permit(s) has/have been applied. If not, you've been added to a waitlist.

Taking Non-FYE Honors Courses

- Our online Fall 2020 Course Booklet is the only place where you'll find accurate and current information about space availability.
- See our Step-by-Step Registration Guide and our Virtual RRO FAQ on our RRO webpages for extensive information and extra assistance.
- Remember: no permit needed for FYE/LCG, and look for permit approvals on Student Dashboard.

Registration Resources

- Registration opens at 10:00am on Day 2 of RRO.
- Students can build their Fall schedule early in preparation for registration during RRO using the Plan Ahead Tool.
- Schedule Builder should be used with caution: it doesn't always pull in Honors sections accurately.
- Section Search Tool is also very useful.
