2. Payment of Fees:

A. The student agrees to pay The University the housing and dining plan fees and any billed charges (i.e., damage charges, lock change charges, late/improper check-out charges, etc.) at the scheduled time by The University. All housing and dining fees and charges are billed in a combined account with The University tuition and fees. These accounts are managed by University Student Business Services.

3. Rates:

A. The student is responsible for the cleanliness and sanitation of the assigned space during the Contract Period. The student may be charged for any excessive cleaning needs after the expiration of this Contract.

C. The student is responsible for the cleanliness and sanitation of the assigned space during the Contract Period. The student may be charged for any excessive cleaning needs after the expiration of this Contract.

3. Rates:

A. The student is responsible for the cleanliness and sanitation of the assigned space during the Contract Period. The student may be charged for any excessive cleaning needs after the expiration of this Contract.

B. The student shall reimburse The University for all damage to the assigned space and furnishings other than normal wear and tear, or for removal or loss of furnishings or appliances.

4. Cancellation of Contract:

A. General: Once this contract has been signed by the parties, even if it is after the cancellation dates below, and even if the student does not secure a specific room assignment, it becomes a binding agreement, a contract between the student (and their Guarantor, if required) and The University. Failure of any party to fulfill the covenants herein except in the manner specified in Subparagraphs A., B., C. of this Paragraph 4, constitutes a breach of the contract and authorizes the use of the remedies described in Paragraph 10 of this contract.

C. Cancellation of Contract Prior to Contract Period/Occupancy: All cancellation requests must be submitted to University Student Housing in writing or submitted electronically (preferred method) by the student on or before July 2, 2023. Failure to properly cancel on or before July 2, 2023 will result in full charge of housing and dining plan fees. Cancellations must be mailed, faxed, or delivered to the address provided for The University in Paragraph 14 below or submitted electronically via the online cancellation form at https://www.ttu.edu/student-housing/cancellation.

5. Room Assignment / Selection:

A. Assignment/selection of space is contingent upon the receipt of required application, properly signed contract, and paid application fee.

B. The University reserves the right to assign and/or reassign space for the benefit of the individual student and/or living unit, as well as University needs.

C. A single room request may be revoked at any time if an overflow circumstance occurs.

D. Room Optimization: Students who lose a roommate or were not assigned a roommate may be given the option to contract for a single room when space permits. Should this option occur and be elected, students will be charged a single rate for remaining time left on the term of this Contract. Should space be available to grant a single room and the student does not elect a single room contract, the student may be assigned to another room or receive another roommate as needed and determined by University Student Housing. Failure to comply with the optimization policy will result in a charge to the student's account for a single room and/or possible contract termination. Occupants with a vacancy in their room will be required to keep the rest of the room clear for a potential roommate. Roommates may be assigned without specific notice.

6. Dining Plan:

A. The student is required to have a valid dining plan during the Contract Period. The dining plan selected with the application for housing will be assigned for the entire Contract Period. IF NO DINNER CHOICE IS SELECTED, THE MATADOR DINING PLAN WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE ASSIGNED. Changes in the level of dining plan selected may be made through July 8, 2023.

B. Dining buckets associated with the dining plan can be used at any time within the current term. Unused dining buckets are non-refundable but are transferable to a Fall 2023 – Spring 2024 housing and dining contract. If the student moves off campus, 70% of unused dining buckets are transferable to The University. The remaining 30% of unused dining buckets are non-transferable to The University. Dining buckets are accessed using the Student ID Card. Lost or stolen cards should be reported immediately to the University ID Office. Only the balance remaining in the account at the time the card is reported lost or stolen will be protected.

C. The University reserves the right to adjust dining operations cost, dining operations cost taxes, and spendable dining buckets which are subject to the appropriate sales tax (Lubbock and Texas).

D. Students may add additional dining buckets to their dining plan at the Hospitality Services Dining Plans Office or online at hospitality.ttu.edu.

7. Student Resident Responsibilities:

A. No additional persons may occupy the assigned space.

B. The student shall reimburse The University for all damage to the assigned space and furnishings other than normal wear and tear, or for removal or loss of furnishings or appliances.

C. The student is responsible for the cleanliness and sanitization of the assigned space during the Contract Period. The student may be charged for any excessive cleaning needs after vacating the assigned space.

D. Upon vacating the assigned space and turning in the assigned key, The University has full authority to remove and/or dispose of abandoned belongings. Abandoned belongings may result in additional charges.

E. Conducting business of any kind from the assigned space or public spaces is prohibited.

F. No outside, third party vendor, is allowed to perform services within the residence hall rooms, suites, apartments, or the public living areas of The University. This includes, but is not limited to, cleaning, laundry and moving services. These vendors will not be considered guests of students or The University. Service deliveries (pizza, flowers, etc.) may be picked up in the main lobbies of the residence halls.

G. Service and/or Emotional Support/Comfort animals will be allowed in University housing only after appropriate documentation has been reviewed/approved by Student Disability Services and University Student Housing.

H. Students in Carpenter/Wells, Murray, Talkington, and West Village that have a valid License to Carry (LTC) may store their authorized weapon within their room so long as the storage safe is approved in accordance with Senate Bill 11, Texas Tech University OP 10.22, and the University Student Housing Campus Carry policies outlined in the University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract Guide.

I. Students will be responsible for knowing and adhering to the Rules and Regulations as outlined in the University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract Guide.

8. Right of Entry:

A. The University reserves the right to enter the assigned space in case of emergency or after proper notice, for purposes of inspection, verification of occupancy, safety, health, and maintenance purposes; The University reserves the right to perform random room inspections.

B. A roommate may be assigned without prior notice. The assigned space may also be entered whenever an assigned student permanently vacates the space or whenever a student vacates for a break period, to ensure that established closing procedures have been followed.

9. Limitation of Liability:

The University cannot guarantee the safety of and does not assume any legal obligation to pay for injury to persons (including death) or loss or damage to items of personal property, which occurs in its buildings or, on its grounds prior to, during, or subsequent to the Contract Period. The student and their Guarantor are encouraged to carry appropriate insurance to cover such losses. The student shall not be entitled to a refund or reduction of payment as a result of any facility malfunction or service interruption including, but not limited to, air conditioning, electrical, heating, mechanical, elevators, plumbing, or power failure, or for losses caused by events or circumstances not directly within the control of The University including, but not limited to, earth movement, fire, illness, infectious diseases, intentional loss, natural disasters, nuclear hazard, or war. Limitation of liability also includes any potential issues with bed bugs or mold. More information on these may be found via the following: http://www.cdc.gov/mold/ and http://www.cdc.gov/parasites/bedbugs/.

10. Remedies:

A. Breach of any of the duties established by this contract authorizes the use of any remedy available in law or in equity. Additionally, if the student or their Guarantor fail to pay room and dining plan fees, or additional charges according to schedule, The University is authorized to use any or all of the following remedies: termination of this Contract, eviction of the student from the assigned space, cancellation of the student’s enrollment in The University, and withholding of the student’s transcript of grades, diploma, or other records and documents, maintained by The University.

B. Failure of The University to enforce at any time any of the provisions of this contract, or its failure to utilize any remedy which is authorized herein, shall in no way be construed to be a waiver of such provisions, nor in any way affect the validity of this contract or any part thereof, or the right of The University thereafter to enforce each and every such provision.

11. Assignability of Contract:

This contract is personal and may not be assigned or otherwise transferred, nor may the student’s space be sublet or otherwise placed in the occupancy, control, or care of another person, other than the student's roommate. The student shall not sublet or otherwise place in the occupancy, control, or care of another person or entity any space associated with the student’s assigned space, including but not limited to community areas such as bathrooms, hallways, kitchens, laundry rooms, lobbies, study lounges or any unassigned spaces.

12. Time of Essence:

Time is of the essence in the satisfaction of all terms of the agreement contracted in this contract.

13. Applicability of Rules and Regulations:

A. Residence Hall Rules and Regulations: Rules and regulations appearing in the University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract Guide and the Texas Tech University Student Handbook are made a part of this contract. Student violations of these rules and regulations may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to referral to the Office of Student Conduct and/or termination of the University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract.

B. Other Laws, Rules, and Regulations: This contract shall be governed both as to interpretation and performance by the laws of the United States and of Texas; by the rules and regulations of the Board of Regents, and by the rules and regulations of Texas Tech University.

14. Addresses for Correspondence:

A. All correspondence required by this contract or otherwise relating to matters contained in this contract, including cancellations from the student (or from the Guarantor) to The University shall be mailed to or delivered at University Student Housing, Texas Tech University, Wiggins Complex, 3211 18th Street, P.O. Box 41141, Lubbock, Texas 79409-114; by fax to (806) 742-2696; or by email to housing@ttu.edu.

B. All correspondence required by this contract or otherwise relating to matters contained in this contract from The University to the student or to their Guarantor shall be mailed to or delivered at the addresses provided in the application to the student and/or their Guarantor on this contract.

15. Entire Contract. No Modifications:

Except as set forth above, this contract and any applicable addendums embody the whole agreement of the parties. There are no provisions, terms, or obligations other than those contained herein and the University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract Guide and the Texas Tech University Student Handbook, and this contract shall supersede all oral communications, representations, or agreements, either verbal or written, between the parties hereof. The student does not have authority to waive, alter, or enlarge this contract without the express written permission of the University.

16. Severability:

A. If any section of this contract is ruled illegal or invalid, such ruling shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the provisions of the contract.

B. The Director of University Student Housing, the Director of Hospitality Services, the student and/or the Guarantor have read and accepted every provision of this contract.

C. In witness whereof the parties have executed this contract.

17. Notice Concerning Your Information:

The Texas Public Information Act, with a few exceptions, gives you the right to be informed about the information that Texas Tech University collects about you. It also gives you the right to request a copy of that information and to have The University revise any information that is incorrect. You may request to receive this information by contacting the office possessing such information.

18. Period of Occupancy:

A. The student may occupy the assigned space during the dates listed below.

B. There will be no reduction in cost for late arrival or early departure.

19. Force Majeure:

“Event of Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of Contractor or University which prevents or makes a party’s compliance with any of its obligations under this Contract illegal or impracticable, including but not limited to: act of God (including, without limitation, fire, explosion, earthquake, tornado, drought, and flood); acts or threats of terrorism; epidemic, pandemic, viral outbreak, or health crisis, or directive of governmental authority. No party will be considered in breach of this Contract to the extent that performance of their respective obligations is prevented or made illegal or impracticable by an Event of Force Majeure that arises during the term (or after execution of the Contract but prior to the beginning of the term). A party asserting an Event of Force Majeure hereunder (“Affected Party”) will give reasonable notice to the other party of an Event of Force Majeure upon it being foreseen by, or becoming known to, Affected Party.

20. Emergency Health and Safety Procedures:

In the event of a pandemic, epidemic, viral outbreak, health crisis, or other emergency (“Emergency”), The University may, at its sole discretion, implement new or modified health and safety procedures in order to protect the health and safety of the University community in the event of Emergency. Student agrees to adhere to all such procedures and related directives from University when residing on University’s campus, including all check out procedures that may be issued from the University. All Emergency and Health Safety Procedures may be found here University Student Housing and Hospitality Services Contract Guide.
