The Carpenter/Wells Complex is a coed, suite-style residence hall, offering three-bedroom townhouses and four-bedroom flats available to men and women of sophomore or higher classification. The Leadership Development Center (LDC) serves as a commons building, featuring a computer lab, limitless laundry room, and several study lounges.

Suite furnishings include a sofa, table and chair (living room); dining table and chairs; and each bedroom is furnished with a twin XL bed, dresser, study desk and chair. The bedrooms have vinyl wood-plank flooring. The kitchen and bathrooms have vinyl floors.

- Each suite includes a kitchenette (refrigerator, microwave oven and two-burner cook-top)
- All suites have outside entrances
- Sam’s Place Murray located nearby in Murray Hall
- Near Rawls College of Business

housing.ttu.edu
Suite-style Residence Halls
Carpenter-Wells Complex

The dimensions listed are approximate. See housing.ttu.edu/facilities/furnishings for more information.