

Practicum Site Directory CFAS 4314

Carefully research your site and be knowledgeable about the agency BEFORE you call to inquire about internship opportunities. Be prepared to describe the CFAS major, your goals, and how you can be helpful to the agency. There are numerous human service organizations in and around Lubbock; you are not limited to those listed in this directory. Agencies listed here have either worked with CFAS students in the past or have expressed interest in working with CFAS students. If the contact information for a site has changed, please email the revised information to Catherine.Morelock@ttu.edu so this directory can be updated. Additional community organizations that may be of interest can be found at www.volunteerlubbock.org.

Your interactions with potential practicum sites will directly influence the opportunities of future CFAS students. During every call, visit, and working day, be sure to show off your Raider Pride by being your best professional self!
