

COLLEGE OF HUMAN SCIENCES RESEARCH COMMITTEE

CHARGE

The Research Committee promotes, encourages, and supports research activities in the College of Human Sciences (COHS).

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Identify needs of COHS faculty and staff and assist with proposal development.
2. As needed, make recommendations to the Associate Dean for Research about distribution of Research Incentive and research related funding.
3. Highlight COHS research activities via contributions to the COHS Research website and other outlets.
4. Evaluate research-related operating policies on a regular basis.

MEMBERSHIP

1. The committee is composed of one faculty member from each academic unit and one member selected from among the college centers and institutes.
2. Department chairpersons will appoint the representative from the academic units and the Associate Dean for Research will appoint an individual to represent COHS Centers and Institutes.
3. Appointment terms are annual, and members can be reappointed.

OPERATING PROCEDURES

1. The committee will meet periodically as needed to carry out assigned responsibilities.
2. The Associate Dean for Research serves as chair of the committee and facilitates its work.
