AT TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

The Community Nutrition course provides an overview to the field of community nutrition and its application to health promotion and disease prevention. Students learn how to perform community nutrition assessment and program planning, implementation, marketing, and evaluation using nutrition education models and materials that are appropriate for target audiences. Physical activity is included as a component of community nutrition assessment and education. The Emerging Issues in Food Science and Nutrition course focuses on developing the skills to critically evaluate and intelligently discuss nutrition research, nutrition guidelines, government regulations, and health & public policy related to food science and nutrition by exposing them to current issues.

FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS

Study Abroad

Competitive Scholarship (SACS)

Students participating in these TTU programs are eligible to apply for the Study Abroad Competitive Scholarship.

Applications for the summer will be available online at www.studyabroad.ttu.edu in October. Applications will be accepted until February 14.

Financial Aid

Students eligible for Financial Aid at TTU can use that aid to study abroad. The Study Abroad office will provide the Financial Aid office with a budget for your program.

Students should contact:
