FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS

Study Abroad Competitive Scholarship (SACS)

Students participating in these TTU programs are eligible to apply for the Study Abroad Competitive Scholarship. Awards generally range from $250 - $750 for the summer. Applications for the summer will be available online at www.studyabroad.ttu.edu on October 1, 2017. Applications will be accepted until March 1, 2018.

Financial Aid

Students eligible for Financial Aid at TTU can use that aid to study abroad. The Study Abroad office will provide the Financial Aid office with a budget for your program. Students should contact Nikki Nordell
nikki.nordell@ttu.edu
in Financial Aid directly for help with specific Financial Aid questions.

NUTRITION, COMMUNITY AND CULTURE IN SOUTH AFRICA

The Community Nutrition course provides an overview to the field of community nutrition and its application to health promotion and disease prevention. Students learn how to perform community nutrition assessment and program planning, implementation, marketing, and evaluation using nutrition education models and materials that are appropriate for various target audiences. Physical activity is included as a component of community nutrition assessment and education. The Cultural Aspects of Food Course studies the historical, social, psychological, economic, religious, and aesthetic significance for food customs, choices, and behaviors in various cultures. The Field Work course provides an opportunity to apply Community Nutrition and Nutrition Education principles to health promotion and disease prevention through participation in a fieldwork project in South Africa.
