

Dawson Hall
305 Sanford Dr
Athens, Georgia 30602
www.fcs.uga.edu/fhce

College of Family and Consumer Sciences

Department of Financial Planning, Housing and Consumer Economics

Lecturer in Financial Planning and Consumer Economics

The Department of Financial Planning, Housing and Consumer Economics at the University of Georgia invites applications for the position of Lecturer in Financial Planning and Consumer Economics.

Position:

Lecturer (nine months, academic appointment, non-tenure track, 100% teaching).

Start date:

August 2023 or as negotiated.

Minimum Qualifications:

The applicant must hold an earned doctorate in financial planning, finance, accounting, consumer economics, or other closely related disciplines with expertise in the area of financial planning and consumer economics.

Preferred Qualifications:

At least one degree in Family and Consumer Sciences is preferred. Demonstrated expertise in the areas of financial planning and consumer economics.

Responsibilities:

The faculty member will have a 100% Teaching nine-month, full time appointment in the Department of Financial Planning, Housing, and Consumer Economics, but will be expected to collaborate across campus on teaching and outreach. The primary teaching assignment for the individual filling this position will be teaching the financial planning and consumer economics courses. The hired faculty should be knowledgeable of the CFP® certification processes and standards. The hired faculty member will be expected to mentor undergraduate students, lead students to academic and professional conferences, student competitions, network with potential employers and funders, and participate in departmental and collegiate governance and professional organizations, and pursue active membership in relevant professional organizations.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Salary:

Competitive, commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Department:

The Department of Financial Planning, Housing, and Consumer Economics is one of the four academic units in the College of Family and Consumer Sciences. It offers B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees with an enrollment of approximately 320 undergraduate and 90 graduate students. Undergraduate programs include Consumer Economics (with an optional emphasis in Applied Consumer Analytics), Social Entrepreneurship, Financial Planning, and Housing Management and Policy (with an optional emphasis in Residential Property Management). The Department is staffed by 20 faculty members with expertise in consumer decision making, consumer and family policy, financial literacy, financial planning, housing, and residential property management. Extension and public service faculty provide practical, research-based information to Georgia residents to improve quality of lives and communities. The department provides research and outreach in support of local government through the Housing and Demographics Research Center.

University:

Since our founding in 1785, the University of Georgia has operated as Georgia's oldest, most comprehensive, and most diversified institution of higher education (<https://www.uga.edu/>). The proof is in our more than 235 years of academic and professional achievements and our continual commitment to higher education. UGA is currently ranked among the top 20 public universities in U.S. News & World Report. The University's main campus is located in Athens, approximately 65 miles northeast of Atlanta, with extended campuses in Atlanta, Griffin, Gwinnett, and Tifton. UGA employs approximately 1,800 full-time instructional faculty and more than 7,700 full-time staff. The University's enrollment exceeds 40,000 students including over 30,000 undergraduates and over 10,000 graduate and professional students. Academic programs reside in 18 schools and colleges, as well as a medical partnership with Augusta University housed on the UGA Health Sciences Campus in Athens.

Closing date:

Complete applications received by February 19, 2023 will be given full consideration. The college plans to fill this position by August 2023, but the search will remain open until the position is filled.

Procedure:

Complete applications will include a letter of application, a vita, a copy of the applicant's unofficial transcript for graduate study, a sample of scholarly writing, and a statement of teaching philosophy. Three letters of reference are preferred but not required unless invited to interview. The applications and supporting documents should be uploaded via the UGAJobs website: <https://www.ugajobsearch.com/postings/296343>. Applicants should request that three letters of reference be sent directly to Melissa McBride (mmcbride@uga.edu). Questions about this position or the application process should be directed to Dr. Lance Palmer (lpalmer@uga.edu) or Ms. Melissa McBride (mmcbride@uga.edu).

The college welcomes applications and nominations of minorities and others who share our passion about and reflect our desire to support a culture of diversity and inclusion. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, genetic information, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation or protected veteran status. Persons needing accommodations or assistance with the accessibility of materials related to this search are encouraged to contact Central HR (hrweb@uga.edu). Please do not contact the department or search committee with such requests.