ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Chair, Personal Financial Planning

- Founding chair of the Department of Personal Financial Planning which includes bachelors, masters', and PhD programs in PFP plus 3 dual MS degrees, an accelerated bachelors-to-master's program, and an on-line Personal Finance minor. A master's program for working professionals is offered in a hybrid delivery format. From the program beginnings in 1987, Texas Tech is now considered the epicenter of financial planning education and research in the nation. The TTU PFP program was ranked number one in 2019 by Wealth Management magazine.

  The Personal Financial Planning Department at Texas Tech employs 13 highly qualified, full-time faculty, one instructor, and eight adjunct faculty devoted to teaching and research in personal financial planning and personal finance. These faculty share a passion for educating the next generation of financial planning professionals and for providing financial literacy education to students across campus. In addition to academic credentials, faculty hold professional designations including CFP®, CLU, CHFC, AFC®, and AIFA®. Many have significant professional practice experience. As well as being excellent teachers, most are actively involved in conducting and disseminating applied research with the goal of building the body of personal financial planning knowledge. Faculty have won numerous awards from both the academic and the professional financial planning communities.

Interim Chair, Department of Design

- Provided interim leadership for department with two strong undergraduate programs (Interior Design and Apparel Design and Manufacturing), a MS degree in Environmental Design, and a PhD in Interior and Environmental Design. The faculty was comprised of 8 tenure-track faculty, 2 full-time instructors, and 2 part-time instructors.

Chair, Applied and Professional Studies

- Led a department that included five academic programs organized in four faculty groups (programs and divisions). The faculty included 24 tenure-track faculty, 7 instructors, and 13 graduate adjunct faculty. The department offered 3 doctoral degrees, 6 master's degrees, 3 bachelor's degrees, and 2 undergraduate minors. Several of the programs were nationally recognized.
- Two centers (Center for Financial Responsibility and the Curriculum Center) and the Marriage and Family Therapy Clinic were part of the Department.

Division Director, Personal Financial Planning

- Coordinated a growing program that included 12 tenure-track faculty, 5 graduate adjunct faculty, approximately 180 undergraduate students and 150 graduate students. The Texas Tech Personal Financial Planning Program received the "Movers and Shakers" award from Financial Planning Magazine in 2003, the only educational program to ever be honored with this award. The program continues to be nationally recognized.
- Oversaw 10 Certified Financial Planner Board – Registered programs, including the only resident Ph. D. program in the nation that is CFP Board Registered and joint degrees with 3 other Colleges/Schools on the Texas Tech University campus
- Facilitated academic and professional activities including curriculum, scholarship, graduate student appointments, and program development
- Served as a Departmental Executive Committee member
- Chaired twelve faculty search committees in seven years that resulted in adding quality faculty to the program
- Worked with PFP faculty to draft a $34 million development initiative for the Personal Financial Planning Division. Within the first year over $1.1 million cash and $3 million in-kind gifts had been received/pledged.
