

2024 – 2025 Travel Funding Incentive

COHS faculty who submit an external research funding proposal over $25,000 as PI or co-PI will receive $1,000 to be used for travel to an academic conference or professional training. This money is to supplement departmental travel allocations. Faculty are eligible to receive this funding one time in a fiscal year. For 2024 – 2025, this opportunity is available for proposals submitted between September 1, 2024 – August 31, 2025. Travel funds must be spent within 1 year of the date received.

To receive travel funding, please complete the brief application after your proposal has been submitted to the agency. The application includes the names of the PI (and co-PIs), the Cayuse number assigned to your proposal, the title of the proposal, funding agency/organization, and date submitted.
