

China: Art and Culture

Post-visit Activity: Graphic Organizer

Name: _____ Date: _____

A descriptive organizer is used to understand a topic. Add symbols, pictures or facts learned about Chinese Calligraphy that would help your classmates understand the importance of this traditional Chinese art form.

Who

Why

When

How

Chinese Calligraphy

Where

Significance

China: Art and Culture

Post-visit Activity: Graphic Organizer KEY

A descriptive organizer is used to understand a topic. Add symbols, pictures or facts learned about Chinese Calligraphy that would help your classmates understand the importance of this traditional Chinese art form.

Who

Chinese

Why

communication sign of status in ancient times to give a good first impression develop inner peace and control

When

2,000 years ago
ancient

Chinese Calligraphy

How

use the 4 Treasures – brush, ink stick, ink slab, and paper hold brush upright roll brush before beginning stroke strokes or lines made inside imaginary box
width of line determined by brush pressure without retracing

Where

China

Significance

Chinese contribution to the world represents a traditional art form a way of meditation promotes well being

