ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE:

A. Vice Provost and Associate Vice Provost, Office of International Affairs (2014 to Current)

Responsible for the oversight of all functions of the Office of International Affairs, including International Enrollment Development (international recruitment, international undergraduate admissions, sponsored students), Study Abroad, International Student and Scholar Services, International Student Life, International Research and Development (research collaborations, grants administration, international partnerships, and export control administration), International Relations (international alumni, international art and culture, fundraising), K-12 Global Education Outreach, and OIA Operations (finances, facilities, and Passport office), as well as the academic center in Seville, Spain. He is also responsible for the supervision of the Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies and the Center for Global Communication.

The following selected list of international initiatives highlight accomplishments realized during my tenure in the Office of International Affairs.

- Texas Tech University was featured for the first time in 2018 in the QS World University rankings at 701-750; and maintained the same ranking in 2019.
- Development and implementation of the 2015-2020 International Strategic Plan and annual assessment protocol.
- Creation of the International Research and Development (IRD) division in OIA to assist faculty with external funding for international research and development. Since 2014, IRD has successfully helped faculty develop over $87M in international research & development grant proposals as of May 1, 2021.
- Establishment of Study Abroad Program Development Seed Grants Program, International Research/Development Seed Grants Program, and International Travel Fund for faculty.
- Development of several successful international collaborations, including: Brazil Scientific Mobility Program; FAPESP x TTU Joint Research Initiative; BHEARD Fellowship Program; and BORLAUG Fellowship Program.

- Continuing strong enrollment of international students – After experiencing a 55.2% increase in undergraduate international students and 30.7% increase in overall international students between Fall 2013 and Fall 2018, we have seen a small decrease in international student enrollment due to factors beyond our control. However, our decline in international student enrollment has been smaller than the national average.
- Record study abroad opportunities for Texas Tech students – In the 2018-2019 academic year, OIA’s Study Abroad unit helped organize over 150 international education programs for over 1,384 students (a 65% increase in the last 5 years). All study abroad programs for Summer 2020, Fall 2020, and Spring 2021 have been cancelled due to the COVID-19 outbreak.
- Recipient of the Senator Paul Simon Spotlight Award for K-12 Global Education Outreach programming in 2016.
- Recipient of the Senator Paul Simon Comprehensive Internationalization Award in 2018.
- Overall coordination of a university-wide effort to open our first international degree-awarding campus in Costa Rica. The first cohort of students began classes in five degree programs in Fall 2018.

B. Coordinator and Acting Dean, Texas Tech University – Costa Rica (2014 to 2019)

Responsible for coordinating a university-wide effort for the opening of an international branch campus in Costa Rica.

- The instructional site was conceptualized with Promerica Bank in July 2014.
- Promerica Bank voted to enter into an exclusive agreement with TTU for establishment of an instructional site in Costa Rica in July 2015.
- TTU signed a Framework Agreement with Edulink in August 2016.
- Groundbreaking ceremony at site of TTU-CR in October 2016.
- The Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) approved the TTU-CR instructional site to be included in the scope of TTU’s current accreditation.
- Started offering undergraduate degree programs in Electrical Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Computer Science, Mathematics, and Restaurant, Hotel, and Institutional Management in Fall 2018.

C. Associate Dean for Research, College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (2002 to 2014)

Coordinated, facilitated, and managed various activities of the CASNR research and international programs, spanning over a period of tenure of four Deans.

- Led efforts to strengthen CASNR’s rapidly growing research enterprise and international collaborations. Accomplished record level research funding and expenditures.
- Led multi-institutional research collaborations with federally appropriated funds, including the international Cotton Research Center, Ogallala Aquifer Program, International Food Safety Initiative, and Great Plains Sorghum Improvement and Utilization Center.

- Provided leadership to the management of the Texas State Legislative Appropriation for the initiative, “Research to Enhance Agriculture Production and Add Value to Agriculture Products in Texas.
- Provided leadership in the development of the CASNR’s 2005-2010 and 2010-2015 Strategic Plans and preparation of Strategic Plan Assessment Reports.
- Was responsible for various other administrative activities (budgets, faculty start-up, HEAF, research incentive awards, distance education programs, communication and marketing activities, CASNR website development and maintenance, etc.).

D. Co-Director and Director, International Cotton Research Center (2008-2014)

Coordinated all efforts of the Center jointly with Co-Director Dr. Norman Hopper (until 2012) and then as Director and Associate Director Dr. Eric Hequet. Administered funding of approximately $5 Million, created ICRC an officially recognized center of the Texas Tech University, developed a strategic plan, formulated an Advisory Board, and developed a Web page for the Center.

E. Associate Director, Cotton Economics Research Institute (1999 to 2005)

Coordinated, facilitated, and disseminated economic research on all aspects of cotton (e.g., production, marketing, trade, processing, value added). During my tenure as the Associate Director:

- The Institute gained national and international recognition for research, education and outreach programs on all aspects of cotton.
- A CERI Advisory Committee was formulated and annual meetings were organized.
- Annual reporting of cotton economics research was initiated.
- Two issues of the Cotton Economics Update per year were published.
- An “Annual Research/Extension Symposium” on cotton economics issues was initiated.

F. Graduate Coordinator, Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics (1998 to 2000)

Together with faculty of the department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, coordinated efforts to strengthen course offerings, increase recruitment, streamline admission and advising processes, enhance visibility. During my tenure as the Graduate Coordinator: an extensive review of the graduate program was undertaken and numerous changes to both the Masters and Ph.D. programs were introduced; the Graduate Catalog of the department was updated every Semester; and the Graduate program Web page was improved and was regularly updated.

RESEARCH, TEACHING, AND SERVICE EXPERIENCE:

A. Research:

The overall emphasis of my research program is to take a systems approach to problem-solving research and development that benefits all segments of the agriculture industry and the higher education sector. Projects related to the agricultural industry include demand and price analysis, market structure, risk analysis, and food safety. Higher education research and development activities include capacity development, strategic planning, and outreach and engagement.
