Proof of Texas Residency

To verify Texas residency, you must submit one of the documents listed below. The document must include your name or your parent/guardian's name AND a Texas residential address.

Acceptable Documentation

- Current deed
- Current lease or mortgage statement
- Current utility bill for gas, water, internet, or electricity (disconnection notices are not accepted)
- Current documents issued by the U.S. military or the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs indicating a residential address
- Letter of Texas residency issued by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD)

Documents must reflect the current residential address used to establish Texas residency.
