

Texas Tech University School of Law
Grade Options and Class Ranks
Temporary Rules for Spring Semester 2020

I. Explanation of Credit/No Credit Grades

CREDIT (CR)

- A grade of Credit (CR) indicates that the student has passed the course with a minimum grade of D.
- A grade of CR will not factor into the student's GPA.

NO CREDIT (NL)

- A grade of No Credit (NL) indicates that the student earned an F in the course.
- A grade of NL will not be sufficient for the student to earn credit for the course.
- A grade of NL in a required course will necessitate the retaking of the required course.
- A grade of NL will not factor into the student's GPA.

II. Explanation of Options Available to Law Students

Law students may retain, course by course, the final letter grades they earn. After viewing their final letter grades, law students may also elect to change, course by course, the final letter grades they earn to grades of CR/NL. A grade of D or higher may be changed to Credit (CR) and a grade of F may be changed to No Credit (NL).

III. Timing and Process of Election of Credit/No Credit Grades

Final grades will be posted no later than 10pm CST on Tuesday, May 26th. Students will have until 10 pm CST on Thursday, May 28th, to submit a request to change any of their final grades to grades of CR/ NL. Details of the process for requesting a grade change will be forthcoming.

IV. Class Ranks for Spring 2020

Class ranks will be released after Spring 2020. Those ranks will be based on law student GPAs calculated after the election of Credit/No Credit grades.