

Texas Tech University School of Music

Graduate Assistantship in Choral Conducting Fall 2025

Stipends between $10,500 and $12,000 annually with tuition and select fee waivers.

DUTIES

Duties include conducting choirs, teaching courses in choral conducting and music education, and/or other department responsibilities.

STIPEND FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR

Stipends for Graduate Assistants are available to qualifying Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA) and Master of Music (MM) students, to be paid as a salary in monthly installments from October through June. Master's stipend: $10,500.00; DMA stipend: $12,000.00. Additional fellowships and scholarships may be available for select students.

TUITION WAIVER AND FEES

Teaching Assistant positions provide significant reductions in all but a portion of tuition and fees, as well as Texas Resident status. Fees vary depending on enrollment.

BENEFITS

In-state tuition and eligibility for medical insurance at a reduced rate.

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

is a leading public university with an enrollment of over 40,000 students. The School of Music, part of the J.T. & Margaret Talkington College of Visual & Performing Arts, has a full-time faculty of 70, enrolling approximately 500 students. Graduate degrees offered include the Master of Music (Performance, Conducting, Composition, String Pedagogy, Piano Pedagogy, Collaborative Piano, Music Theory, Musicology), Master of Music Education, Doctor of Musical Arts (Performance, Conducting, Composition, Piano Pedagogy), PhD in Music Education, and PhD in Fine Arts with tracks in Music Theory, Musicology, and Administration.

Our graduate choral conducting program boasts an impressive placement rate for graduates. DMA graduates consistently secure positions at esteemed institutions of higher education, while MM graduates find success in public school systems or continue their studies at top doctoral programs nationwide. The Texas Tech University Choirs have performed at prestigious conferences and venues around the world, showcasing their excellence and contributing to our program's reputation for producing skilled, highly employable conductors.

Lubbock is a major cultural center of West Texas with a population of nearly 300,000 that supports the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra, Lubbock Youth Orchestras, Ballet Lubbock, the Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Arts, the state-of-the-art Buddy Holly Hall for the Performing Arts and Sciences, numerous galleries, and a variety of other music, dance, and theatre performance organizations and venues. Lubbock offers a quality living experience with a semi-arid climate and housing costs below the national average.

This position is pending the availability of funding for the 2025-2026 academic year and at the time of the appointment.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

Alan Zabriskie
Director of Choral Studies
702-279-5241
alan.zabriskie@ttu.edu

Clark Preston, Lead Academic Advisor
806.834.3279
music.admissions@ttu.edu

Scan for More Information

ttu.edu/music | schoolofmusic@ttu.edu | 806.742.2274

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

TEXAS TECH
J.T. & Margaret Talkington
College of Visual & Performing Arts