ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Pedro Tudón Sáenz, conductor

Born in Mexico City, Pedro Tudón Sáenz is establishing himself in the Mexican orchestra conducting scene. He began his musical studies at a young age, taking piano and orchestral conducting lessons from his father, Pedro Tudón Toledo. Pedro earned his Bachelor's Degree in Orchestral Conducting from the Escuela Superior de Música in Mexico City, studying under Maestro David Rocha. He also holds a Diploma Degree from the Escola Superior de Música de Catalunya in Spain, where he studied under Maestro Antoni Ros Marbà. Currently, Pedro is pursuing a Master's Degree in Orchestral Conducting at Texas Tech University's School of Music, under the guidance of Maestro Lanfranco Marcelletti. In 2014, Pedro was appointed as the first Principal Conductor of the Manuel M. Ponce Youth Orchestra in Guanajuato, Mexico. In 2021, he founded the Ars-Tlán Ensemble, a chamber orchestra that brings together professional and amateur musicians to promote young talent, new music, and lesser-known works from the traditional orchestral repertoire. Pedro's interest in classical and baroque periods, as well as historically informed performance, has led him to participate in masterclasses with renowned teachers such as Ton Koopman, Graham Lea-Cox, and Jordi Mora. In 2022, Pedro completed a Diploma in Youth Orchestra Conducting with Maestro Fernando Lozano in Mexico City. In addition to his conducting studies, Pedro holds a degree in Political Science from the University of Guanajuato, Mexico. Pedro Tudón Sáenz exclusively uses batons from the German brand Rohema.
