What is Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI)?

OLLI began as a continuing education program at Texas Tech University in 2002-2003 as Texas Tech Lifelong Learning. In 2008, endowment support was received from the Bernard Osher Foundation. In recognition of its affiliation with the Osher Foundation and as one of 120 such institutes nationwide, Texas Tech Lifelong Learning was re-named Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Texas Tech University. We are self-sustaining, supported through membership dues, class fees, an endowment from the Bernard Osher Foundation, donations and in-kind support from Texas Tech University. No tests, no grades, no research papers – just intellectual stimulation.

Members may also choose to donate their refund if they wish to support OLLI operations. ### My Characters Did It: "Surprise, Texas" by Andy Wilkinson

Non-fiction writing is done by an author grappling with facts. Fiction writing is done by an author grappling with their characters. Join celebrated author and poet, Andy Wilkinson, as he introduces us to his story about "Surprise, Texas" – a historical fiction, or a fictional history – you decide which. Intended to be read aloud, this is a story about how we sometimes must become what we pretend to be. Set in the ephemeral village of Surprise in the hard-scrabble oil patch of Andrews County, Texas, Thom Ed Jones recounts the history of the place and its peoples, a tribe by choice living by design in obscurity, quartered in homes with wheels. Surprise, Texas, is the sort of place you drive past as quickly as you can; though after reading Thom Ed's story, you might want to lighten your load of possessions and throw in with all these surprises.

Instructor: Andy Wilkinson is a poet, songwriter, singer and playwright whose particular interest is the history and peoples of the Great Plains. His work has received several honors, among them the Texas Historical Foundation's John Ben Shepperd Jr. Craftsmanship Award and five National Western Heritage "Wrangler" Awards in four different categories. He is an artist in residence at the Southwest Collection at Texas Tech University.

The Rise and Fall of the Average Rock Band

(Told in two films)

Most pop and rock bands, if they experience success at all, do so all too briefly. Sometimes known as one-hit wonders, the story behind these groups often follows a predictable script, something that is delightfully presented in this two-film series. We will first watch Tom Hanks' debut as writer and director in 1996's "That Thing You Do." Set in 1964, it follows the rise and eventual fall of a Pennsylvania pop/rock band. The second week we will watch director Alan Parker's 1991 film, "The Commitments." Although set in early 90's working-class Dublin, the music is all 1960's and 70's American soul, and rhythm and blues! The performances are just wonderful; but be warned, this working-class cast of characters uses quite colorful adult language – in abundance! If you love music and the behind-the-scene stories, please join us for these two films!

Instructor: Larry Hess, M.M., is a retired Lubbock ISD educator. He is also a professional musician having retired after 30 years as a percussionist with the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra.

Dates: August 30 & September 6, 2018

Days/Time: Thursdays, 5:30-8 p.m.

"It Happened One Night" (1934)

"It Happened One Night" won the Academy Award for Best Picture (1935) as well as winning in four other categories. Come join us for a fun evening filled with food and laughter.

Finance

Current Budget Projection for 2019

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act is a substantial revision in U.S. federal tax law especially as that law applies to corporations. The law was lauded as providing jet fuel that will supercharge the economy. Supporters promised that the lower corporate tax rate would increase jobs and wages as firms would use their tax savings to reinvest in the U.S., building more plants, investing in new equipment and hiring new employees. Critics argued that firms would use the money instead to pay dividends to shareholders and/or buy back stock. The extent to which the actual response of corporate America leaned toward the former prediction versus the latter will effectively determine the economic and revenue effects of the tax change. In this course, we will review how U.S. firms responded to the new tax law and how major economic indicators have changed since passage of the 2017 tax law.

Instructor: Robert Ricketts, Ph.D., is director of the School of Accounting and the Frank M. Burke chair in taxation at the Rawls College of Business at Texas Tech University (Lubbock). He has studied, taught and conducted research in taxation for more than 30 years.

"Harvard Beats Yale 29-29"

Flipping through the Sunday sports section of the Avalanche-Journal on November 24, 1968, attention was paid to #9 Arkansas defeating TTU 42-7; Oklahoma crushing Nebraska 47-0; or maybe #2 Ohio State's triumph over #4 Michigan 50-14. Getting little attention was the Ivy League championship game: Harvard "defeats" Yale 29-29. This year marks the 50th anniversary of that contest known since as "The Game." The class will view and discuss the documentary "Harvard Beats Yale 29-29" that tells the story of this clash of undefeated teams and the players and spectators including Tommy Lee Jones, Calvin Hill, Al Gore, Brian Dowling, Gary Trudeau and Meryl Streep. Kathy was an elementary teacher and assistant principal in schools across Lubbock ISD before spending ten years as principal of Murfee Elementary. In 2009 the district sought a visionary leader respected by peers to lead Lubbock ISD's first professional development department. Kathy Rollo was the obvious choice. She was promoted to associate superintendent for elementary schools in 2013 and remained in that position until the summer of 2017, when she left the district to work in the College of Education at Texas Tech University. In addition to her service within the district, Dr. Rollo is a trailblazer in the Lubbock community, having won numerous awards for her leadership.

Ruthie Foster: Grammy-Nominated Blues, Folk and Soul Singer

In the tight-knit musical community of Austin, Texas, it's tough to get away with posturing. You either bring it, or you don't. If you do, word gets around. And one day, you find yourself duetting with Bonnie Raitt or standing onstage with the Allman Brothers at New York's Beacon Theater and trading verses with Susan Tedeschi. You might even wind up getting nominated for a Best Blues Album Grammy – three times in a row. And those nominations would be in addition to your seven Blues Music Awards, three Austin Music Awards, the Grand Prix du Disque Award from the Académie Charles-Cros in France and a Living Blues Critics' Award for Female Blues Artist of the Year. There's only one Austinite with that résumé: Ruthie Foster.
