Please describe your department / program and its mission.

The Interior Design program provides learning experiences that focus on designing and planning safe, healthy, and appropriate environments for individuals and groups, including special-needs populations. The 4 year program (Bachelor of Interior Design) includes computer-aided design, historic and contemporary interiors and furnishing, color and lighting systems, business practices, illustration, building codes and standards, architectural history and construction, as well as a professional portfolio development. Obtaining a degree in Interior Design will provide students with a plethora of opportunities and job positions within the design field.

What is your current review time-line?

Accreditation was awarded Spring 2015 for a three-year cycle. The next review will be held Spring Semester 2018.
