

Assessment: Assessment Plan

Degree Program - ARC - Architecture (MS)

CIP Code: 04.0201.00

Degree Program Coordinator: Dora Epstein

Degree Program Coordinator Email: dora.epstein@ttu.edu

Program Purpose Statement: The College of Architecture educates students for future design practice and advances knowledge of the discipline for the benefit of society.

Modality: Face-to-Face

Student Learning Outcome: Scholarship Ability

Enhanced student performance

Outcome Status: Active

Outcome Type: Student Learning

Start Date: 07/01/2006

Assessment Methods

Thesis - Students engaged in post-professional study must submit a thesis for review at the end of their program of study. These are reviewed by the associate dean for graduate studies and directors of the MS programs that make up our MS specializations. The team assesses whether the thesis meets the program learning objective outcomes. (Active)

Criterion: Degree of success in M.S. theses as per assessment instrument developed for this purpose.

Related Documents:

Outgoing student questionnaire-MS.pdf

Course Level Assessment - Collect data and place in the Post-Professional Graduate Council matrix from the following courses: ARCH 5315, ARCH 6000, and ARCH 7000 (Active)

Criterion: Success of courses in meeting the outcome expectations

Related Goals

Degree Program - ARC - Architecture (MS)

KNOWLEDGE: Build a nationally recognized scholarship agenda in technology and design, historic preservation, community design, land use planning & visualization.

BENEFITING SOCIETY: Establish a humanistic understanding of architecture and related disciplines and their relationship to a broader world view.